Preface:

This list and document have been compiled as a memorial and out of empathy and respect to the women, children and men who lost their lives in that cruel attack by Japanese bombers on the small coastal ship, converted into an auxiliary vessel, “SS. Kuala” on 14 February 1942, twelve hours after it escaped from Singapore.

This was the day before Singapore surrendered to the Japanese.

Many of the women and children were killed on the ship itself, but even more by continued direct bombing and machine gunning of the sea by Japanese bombers whilst they were desperately trying to swim the few hundred yards to safety on the shores of Pom Pong Island. Many others were swept away by the strong currents which are a feature around Pom Pong Island and, despite surviving for several days, only a handful made it to safety.

The Captain of the “Kuala”, Lieutenant Caithness, recorded of the moment “…thirty men and women floated past on rafts and drifted east and then south – west, however only three survivors were picked up off a raft on the Indragiri River, a man and his wife and an army officer…”. The bombing continued even onto the Island itself as the survivors scrambled across slippery rocks and up the steep slopes of the jungle tangled hills of this small uninhabited island in the Indonesian Archipelago – once again, Caithness, recorded “…but when the struggling women were between the ships and the rocks the Jap had turned and deliberately bombed the women in the sea and those struggling on the rocks...’.

Several survivors including Able Seaman Gunner, John Sarney, RNZN, (who wrote it in a letter to his wife); Dr Chen Su Lan who wrote “… every time the bombs dropped and the rattling of machine –guns was heard … “; and also friends of Mr. Tay Lian Teck who reported to his family that they saw him “… being machine gunned by Japanese planes...” recorded that the Japanese planes machine gunned the survivors trying to reach shore - this is disputed by other survivors who say there was no machine gunning. The researcher is, sadly, sure that the Japanese aircraft did machine gun survivors in the sea.

Once people reached Pom Pong Island, Caithness records, “...the lady doctors and nurses, most of whom were Australian and British nurses from various hospitals in Malaya, carried the wounded to a clearing in the jungle about a hundred feet above sea level ...”. He adds “...the scene was one never to be forgotten and too awful to mention...”.

Only the day before this totally unwarranted carnage occurred at Pom Pong Island, the once vibrant city of Singapore had been in its death throes as the Japanese shelled and bombed it into submission on the night of 13 February 1942. Total chaos had reigned as several thousand civilians milled in fear on the wharves on Singapore harbour whilst bombs and shells were falling amongst them and killing many. They struggled and pushed onto the ships in the harbour with no thought of Passenger Lists, so exactly who was on board that day has been a very confused picture ever since.

This document is an attempt to set the record straight.

Author and survivor Janet Lim says that more than half the passengers were women and children. Reality is that the vast majority were women, teenagers, children and babes - in - arms.

Probably the most distressing aspect of this incredibly callous act by the Japanese air force was the high death toll of children and babies that resulted - many in cruel circumstances that saw children floating out to sea with no hope of survival (see the notation regarding Donald Forrester aged 8 years). There must have been 50 - 70 children and babies on board, but very few if any survived to reach safety in India or the UK during the War. At the extreme, there is the quite incredible story of Patsy Li, aged six years, who was swept away from the “Kuala” on some wreckage and who, some newspapers claimed was reportedly found several years later, thousands of kilometers away; on Guadalcanal as the US troops were fighting the Japanese. Another poignant story is that of James Cairns from Penang and his infant son, Jimmy, who floated at sea for eight hours before being rescued and reaching Sumatra, only to spend the rest of the war together in the Bankinang men’s internment camp.

In the same context, there was the truly horrible reality that when the bombing started and the ship was on fire many women had to jump, with their children or babies, into the sea and its powerful tidal currents and basically try and swim alone through the sea whilst being blasted with high explosive bombs.

A medical doctor from Singapore and “Kuala” survivor, Dr. Chen Su Lan, wrote notes to record his memories of the day whilst stranded on an island during the weeks after the sinking. These formed part of his published book “Remember Pom Pong and Oxley Rise” which is now in the Singapore National Library (CSL). This book contains some of the best descriptions of the events of 13th-14th February 1942 as they impacted the people on the “SS. Kuala”. He wrote most passionately of the scale and awfulness of these events;

“… I saw soldiers throwing into the sea anything that could float – bath gratings, chairs, tables, rattan baskets, empty packing cases, kapok mattresses and so on…. Around the funnel the fire was leaping and extending. Beyond its devouring and grasping tongues women and children were lining the ship’s railings wailing for help which did not come. The majority of them could not swim a stroke and had no life-belts, while the life-boats were used to carry the Europeans particularly the sick and wounded. In my practice I had seen mothers clutching dead babies to their breasts and heard them cry as if their hearts would break. I had heard and seen young wives wailing over their dying husbands so pathetically that even a doctor having seen numerous deaths could not help shedding a tear or two. But I had never heard such mass wailing of hundreds of helpless fellow creatures as they were told to choose between the burning ship and the yawning depth of an unknown sea. I shall never as long as I live forget those tormented screams. They broke my heart. They tormented my soul whenever I recalled them…” (CSL)

One of the other survivors of these events, Mr. Stanley Jewkes, also powerfully describes in the final chapter of his book “Humankind?” [ISBN 0-7596-8787-0] the true heartbreak and horror faced by individual mothers this situation and his writing on the whole event in this book is exceptional. Being one of the last people to leave the ship, he describes one single event that in many ways sums up the human tragedy borne by women in the sinking of the “SS. Kuala” and then the false hope of safety a few days later in the boarding of the ‘rescue ship’ and probably even more awful sinking of the “SS. Tanjong Pinang”;

We found them as we rowed the life boat around the bow of the ship looking for any remaining survivors before returning to the shelter of the trees on Pom Pong Island. Japanese planes were still circling overhead, dropping more bombs. Flames had spread through most of the ship, and were playing around the mid-ship depth charges. Ammunition in the ship’s magazine was exploding like Chinese crackers, as it had been for the past hour. We expected a violent explosion to occur at any moment.

Carefully and with difficulty we lifted the mother and her two children over the lifeboat’s high gunwale. At least they were to have four more days to live before they were sent to a watery grave deep in the South China Sea, at the hands of a ruthless enemy. As we picked them out of the water, I looked at the young mother, who showed no signs of fear or panic, and thought of my own wife, about the same age, and my year old daughter...

The “Kuala” passengers largely comprised a cross section of the Europeans living in Malaya at that time, plus quite a number of Chinese and Eurasian families. Insofar as the Europeans they represented families split asunder by the Japanese invasion - one record has it that 27 men who were soon to be interned in Changi had wives and some family who had left on the “Kuala” (TKD). Many men lost their entire families either in this attack or the later sinking of the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” (abbreviated to “TP” in the remainder of this document) which arrived at Pom Pong Island after a few days to rescue the women and children survivors.

In the years spent researching this document it became apparent that, whilst the boarding of the “Kuala” in Singapore was chaotic with little organization and no apparent passenger list; there were strong group dynamics at work amongst the people who boarded. They were in many cases those with strong links and had known each other for years through family ties, sporting associations (particularly golf and tennis) in Singapore or through business links. Many of the people on board represented both Europeans and Chinese in the top echelon of the Singapore business world and the Singapore Municipality; and also some of Northern Malaya’s oldest European families who persisted with staying in Singapore in the belief it would never fall.

Group dynamics were also important in the escape of a group of the some of the most influential and wealthy Chinese in Singapore who would have faced serious persecution upon the Japanese taking control of Singapore [Noel Barber in his book states that 125 permits were given by Brigadier Simson to the Evacuation Committee on the 13th February specifically for the Europeans and Asians who were on Evacuation Committees list] – with most of the Chinese males boarding the “SS. Tien Kwang” (which left Singapore in convoy with the “Kuala”) and a few men with all the women and children boarding the “Kuala”. Amongst the group of Chinese there were also strong social and family ties as can be seen from previous attendances at funerals (STA 3.5.39 funeral of Miss Emma Lu daughter of the Assistant manager of the bank of China in Singapore at that time). This group included ‘Johnny’ Lim of the Ho Hong Company and his family; Tay Lian Teck; Chen Su Lan and his son; and Lim Chong Pang and his brother Lim Chong Ming together with their families. There was a terrible death toll in these families during the bombing of the “Kuala” and then as a result of women and children boarding the “Tandjong Pinang”. Other notable Singaporeans in the group escaping Singapore included a young Mr. Lee Seng Tee and the - “chief of staff” - of his father (who was Lee Kong Chian of the Lee Rubber Company) by the name of Tan Sim Boh who both boarded the “Tien Kwang”. Lee Seng Tee eventually made it back to Singapore but Tan Sim Boh lost his life in the bombing at Pom Pong Island.

Dr. Chen Su Lan recalled the scene at the time of boarding in Singapore “… The staff of the Bank of China was seen carrying bags of important documents on their shoulders, while Europeans, mostly civilians and outnumbering the Chinese, monopolized the space before the gates …” (CSL).

One of the largest family related groups comprised the Eurasian family made up of the Eames, the van der Straatens, the Hartleys and the Newmans from Kuala Lumpur and Singapore. There were several sisters-in-law and many children on board. Similarly were another big Eurasian family group from Singapore - the cousins Sybil Zehnder, ‘Lily’ Plenckers and ‘Flossie’ Smith (possibly also ‘Maggie’ Schook but this is not able to be evidenced at this stage) and their children.

We learn once again from Dr. Chen Su Lan that many did not know what ship they were on, “… We had not been told the name of the ship nor of her destination … The ship appeared to be filled with men in uniform … as we looked around … we stumbled upon the name of the ship “SS. Kuala” on an iron rack on which were hung the depth charges. Her name on the ship’s side had been painted over …”

The reality of being on board the “Kuala” during its short journey has not been recorded in detail by many survivors but there are several insights from Wilhelmina Eames via her three year old daughter at the time, Shirley, (see under the passenger list for more of their account) which provide some feel for the circumstances;
“... the Kuala was so suffocated with frightened talking flesh one could barely move without having to step over someone...” and later during this short voyage with food being a priority (because there was not any) Wilhelmina set off looking for something for the large family to eat and Shirley recounts “... somehow, even in the midst of despair there are acts from fellow human beings that remain hot – wired into your psyche. A Chinese woman, Straits Chinese Mum thought, crouched on the floor with a container of boiled rice, preparing to feed her large family. She looked up at Mum, and then at me, and quietly filled a bowl with rice and gave it to Mum. We did not eat much that night, but we did eat. Early next morning the ship was bombed. There was said Mum, unbelievable pandemonium...”

The question of overcrowding [which was unavoidable] is graphically illustrated by the lifebelt situation “… The ship was intended to accommodate only 222 passengers but she had about five or six hundred. Most of the Chinese passengers had no life-belts, all 350 having been taken by the Europeans ... “(CSL).

One book stated that there were 50 nurses from both civilian and military hospitals of which, it states, at least eight nurses were killed on the “Kuala” and two died on Pom Pong Island from wounds. Nurse Garvin recorded that at least half the batch of QA’s who left Singapore were killed. Molly Watts-Carter stated”…quite 60 women were killed by bomb splinters and blast, the rest of us jumped overboard...”. The harsh truth revealed by this research is that there were about 170 nurses and another five VADs who boarded the “Kuala” – of whom at least 130 died. Amongst those who lost their lives either in the bombing at Pom Pong Island, the sinking of the “Tanjong Pinang” or later internment in Japanese camps were about 105 nurses from the Malayan Medical Service, the Medical Auxiliary Service or the Territorial Army Nursing Service, and a further 26 from the QAIMNS.

One of the first bombs to hit the ship at Pom Pong Island killed a group of senior nurses conferring in a cabin on the handling of wounded already on board – this group was reported to be Matron Jones, Mrs. Cherry, Miss Speeding, Miss Russell and Miss West.

A small number of the nurses on the ship who lost their lives are specifically remembered on the ‘Malayan Nurses’ Roll of Honour in Westminster Abbey (ST 13.11.50) and these include Matron (retd.) Cherry, Sister Olive MacFarlane, Matron Fanny Holgate, Sister Grace Logan, matron Waugh (who died from injuries inflicted during the bombing of the ship, in Padang soon after the Japanese arrived) and Sister N.S. MacMillan who died in internment.

When the ship caught fire from the bombing and most of the women and children literally had to jump into the sea and a great many were swept quickly away from the ships and Pom Pong Island to their deaths. There are also many stories from survivors who spent days floating at sea before being picked up by local Chinese and Malay villagers and fishermen. These stories bring into focus that unavoidable reality of racial division that existed at the time., regrettably driven by the attitude of some Europeans and their racially superior view of other races, even in the survival situation on tiny rafts; also the reluctance of some local fishermen to rescue Europeans – preferring instead to firstly save Chinese survivors floating at sea – and even a few of the local Malay rescuers robbing both Chinese and European survivors.

On board the ship racial differences became quickly apparent (whereas society had actually operated much more respectfully in pre-war business and sporting circles) viz. “… on board the Kuala … he had been a member of the Singapore Rotary Club … he knew me, but there on an evacuee ship. He knew me not [also on other passengers] … very few European acquaintances spoke to us. It seemed that the presence of Chinese on board was only tolerated but not welcomed … “(CSL).

This contrasts with the heroics of Tay Ah Soey who rescued dozens of floating survivors and Tan Ah Ngoh – both received awards for bravery after the war - Tan Ah Ngoh a British Empire medal in 1949 and Tan Ah Soey an award in 1952 (ST 10.12.52). Tay Ah Soey became a well know hero in Singapore history. He picked up about 36 people in his sampan including Lim Chong Pang and also arranged for much food to be brought to Pom Pong Island from his village.

In the chaos and death occurring during the bombing of the ship and the situation where scores of women, children and men were being swept to their deaths by the powerful currents around the island; tragically between moments of incredible bravery and self sacrifice there occurred some awful moments of racism recorded by Dr. Chen Su Lan (who wrote much of his account of the sinking and its aftermath - when it was fresh in his mind - during the many weeks he hid from the Japanese on Pulau Temiang).

Sadly he recorded several instances when race appeared to come before humanity “… a little Chinese girl carried on the back of a Chinese swimming towards Pom Pong was not allowed to be put in the [life] boat … “and also the situation of “…two brothers [Chinese] threatened with a revolver for clinging to a life-buoy …” and finally “… [a] taxi-dancer was not allowed into a [life] boat …” (CSL).

There is no question that the nurses on Pom Pong Island were very brave, demonstrably unselfish and totally dedicated to their patients. It is notable that several of the QA’s who lost their lives have been awarded “Mentioned in Dispatches” which is a high honour – if awarded posthumously this MID is amongst the highest honours.

The toll of lives lost from these events was often highly concentrated on individual families and had a shattering effect. Amongst the women there were three sisters from New Zealand – all had graduated from University (two as medical doctors) in that country and had gone to work in Malaya in the 1930s. All three women lost their lives in the events which followed the bombing – the eldest Agnes “Nessie” Craig and her sister Dr. Teresa “Tessie” Thompson (nee Craig) boarded the ‘SS. Tandjong Pinang’ from Pom Pong island several days after the bombing and died in the sinking of that ship on 17 February 1942; and Dr. Florence Craig died the same day as her sisters but on Senejang Island from bomb blast wounds received in the bombing on Pom Pong Island. Their father, Dr. George Craig, CMG, ISO, a former Comptroller of Customs in New Zealand, who had retired to Sydney, Australia in 1935 never recovered from the shock of losing his three daughters and passed away in July 1947 (archives “Sydney Morning Herald” 2.7.47). In the Sleigh family from Singapore were three of the five daughters of that family, all little girls in the care of a family friend, Miss Jessie Lee, but who disappeared and were never heard of again. The family hoped against reality for decades that the girls had survived and were living somewhere unknown in the world.

Manning the ship – after its local Malay and Chinese crew had been sensibly dismissed of their duties in Singapore (since the ship was not returning) and had been replaced by Royal Navy personnel (EFSGR) including some from the “HMS. Prince of Wales “and possibly, the “HMS. Repulse” – were at least eight officers and some fifteen or more crew.

It appears that amongst the men on board were two of the most senior British Army officers in Malaya – certainly Brigadier General Walter Lindley Fawcett ( Brigadier General Staff, III Indian Corps under General Heath) and very possibly ( but unproven) Brigadier Aird – Smith. Both men died in the series of events either following the bombing of the “Kuala’ or the later sinking of the “SS. Tandjong Pinang”. Also, probably, because of these high level connections were the wives of Brigadier Curtiss and Brigadier Wildy plus those of the highest ranking RAMC officers including the wife Col. Stringer and a mystery woman who boarded and was described by other passengers as ‘Mrs. Seaver’ the ‘wife’ of Brigadier Seaver (but his legal wife spent the duration of the war in Ireland) – both these women lost their lives on the later escape from Pom Pong Island on the “SS. Tandjong Pinang”.

Also amongst the people on board there was also a very large group on men from the Public Works Department of the Straits Settlement and Federated Malay States governments - one PWD survivor, Jim Hutton, puts the number at 68 men. They were instrumental in the survival of those on Pom Pong Island through taking control of organization and their efforts in finding fresh water by digging into the ground at “Spring Cove”. Many of these men were also serving Malayan Volunteers. There was another group of 20 men from ‘250 AMES’, which was an RAF Radar unit from Singapore, who had been ordered to go to Java.

On the other hand a question of historical fact remains as to whether a group of eight or nine men from the Straits Trading Co. Ltd., who appear to have been designated to board the “Kuala”, actually got on board that ship or at the last minute switched to the “Tien Kwang” - some in fact appear to have been amongst those who were killed crossing the docks to get on board launches.

The men who were shipwrecked on Pom Pong Island were often stalwart, sometimes heroic, but there appears to have been widespread despair and depression amongst many. The conditions on the Island were desperate - the position appeared hopeless, everyone was rationed to half a cigarette tin of water twice a day, there was almost no food, and they faced a very steep, stony inhospitable terrain and jungle plus there was the constant need to hide in the trees all day as Japanese bombers flew over searching for targets. Many had lost their shoes and most of their clothing. There were many wounded people; some obviously dying and these exhausted and dispirited men were faced for many days with the awful task of burying or disposing of the dozens of bodies on and around the Island as the climate of the Tropics took hold.

Amongst the men on Pom Pong island there was, regrettably, one recorded instance of absolutely dishonorable behaviour when at least some of a small group of Australian Army deserters from the ship “Tien Kwang” (which had also sunk at the Island), stole precious water supplies from the only real source at “Spring Cove” in “Water Bay”. Arms were distributed to PWD men who mounted guard to counter this appalling conduct.

A sad truth is that of the several hundred people who lost their lives in the sinking of the “SS. Kuala” and the abandonment of the “Tien Kwang” (before it was also bombed and scuttled at Pom Pong Island), very few of the bodies were able to be buried on Pom Pong Island – it seems possibly less than a dozen. The lack of digging implements, the very rocky foreshore and the loss of energy amongst survivors because of the lack of food or water in the end precluded the normal burial of remains. Most of the (possibly up to two hundred) bodies of those who died on the Island or washed up on the shore were taken out to deep water by the ship’s lifeboats.

Whilst many people were killed on board during the bombing and more in the water between the ship and Pom Pong island, as mentioned above there were a large number of children, women and men swept away by strong currents whilst clinging to rafts, articles thrown from the ship or just frantically trying to swim to save themselves. There are very few recorded accounts of the people swept away since most died at sea, however Dr. Chen Su Lan was one of these and also one who survived this ordeal so his personal account is important to an understanding of the reality experienced by many people in this part of the tragedy. He recorded;

“... The spot south of Pompong is the meeting place of several currents. With the tides they change their courses which are both irregular and erratic and with which only the fishermen in the neighbourhood are conversant. While I was drifting in the south-westerly direction in one current, others floated in the south-easterly direction in another.... I was now some distance away from the southern end of the island and to the west of it. The sea to the south of the island and to my east was strewn with heads. ‘Help! Help!’ from every throat as one, two and three lifeboats passed around the southern end to the eastern side to deposit survivors from the ships or picked up on the way. Some lucky ones were picked up. Others were left to drift like me ... I was still confident that they would somehow return to pick me up. I had as an extra precaution clung to a rattan basket. Discarding this bulky and unwieldy thing I caught hold of a wooden bath grating in the hope I could sit on it and could see things and be seen. But every time I tried to go on top I went under ... I was now right at the spot where the cross currents met, and the hitherto calm sea gave place to big waves which buffeted and submerged me again and again one moment I sank in the trough of a swell and in another moment I rose to the top with only my chin above water...at about 2 p.m. I gave up the remains of the bath grating and seized a packing case floating near me ... [after being ignored by a lifeboat or sampan nearby when he called for help] ... I reasoned that if I was not rescued in broad daylight with a boat so close, by what chance would I have when the sun went down ... with my last hope shattered a shudder went through me and I began to feel helpless and cold. In the meantime a mattress with two white women lying on it came near. One of them, perhaps the younger, was vomiting violently and groaning while the other tried to soothe her with kind words. Hearing my shouts they too cried ‘Help!’ ... a sense of being alone and abandoned chilled and overwhelmed me ... “. (CSL)

In the compilation of this record it emerged that only an estimated 300 (this includes those women and men who ended up as internees or POWs in Sumatra, Java and Singapore) of the original 650-700 people who boarded the “SS. Kuala” in Singapore ever made it to relative safety via the port of Padang in Western Sumatra. This indicates that some 350 women, children and men who boarded the “Kuala” lost their lives – at least 150 people being killed as a result of the bombing and swift currents at Pom Pong Island and a further almost 200 losing their lives at sea when the little rescue ship “SS. Tanjong Pinang”, which had picked them up from the beach at Pom Pong Island, was sunk by the Japanese on 17 February 1942 as it raced towards Batavia. Such was the confusion on what had happened during the War it was still officially believed even in 1946 that the “Tanjong Pinang” had been captured by the Japanese (STA 29.5.46) and this might have been caused by the incorrect report (which seems to have emanated from British official sources in India in 1942) that there had been a Japanese radio broadcast stating the names of many of those who lost their lives on the “Tandjong Pinang” as having actually been captured. Whoever was responsible for either this error, or possibly inept attempt at propaganda, caused much unfounded hope for survivors during and after the war.

Of the survivors who left Pom Pong Island in rescue craft, some 40 – 50 would later lose their lives in evacuation ships from Padang (in particular the “SS. Rooseboom” which was sunk in the Indian Ocean on 1 March 1942 with almost total loss of life including some nurses, wives and children of PWD men and several men from the “SS. Kuala” (see “Rooseboom” document on COFEPOW or the Malayan Volunteer Group websites) or during their brutal experience as internees and POWs of the Japanese.

In many cases there appears to be no record of the deaths at the CWGC – it could be surmised that in some cases there were no family left to follow up the whereabouts of the missing person – in several instances it can be seen that where wives are listed as possibly lost in one of the sinkings there is the sad fact that their husband also lost his life as a POW.

Survivors (of the sinking of both the “Kuala “and the “Tandjong Pinang”), or those for whom the situation of whether or not they survived is unclear, are in green font.

No single authority (Commonwealth War Graves Commission or Changi Museum etc.) seems to have assembled anything like the list of, incredibly, almost 700 people who crammed onto the quite small “SS. Kuala” when it left Singapore under bombing at 6.15pm (WNSF) on the night of 13th February 1942. In 1943 an informal style of enquiry started and continued until 1946 in the UK to ascertain who was on the “SS. Kuala” and also who later transshipped to the “SS. Tanjong Pinang” – the various records of this enquiry have been included in this research.

Several survivors compiled partial lists of passengers and survivors, regrettably probably the best lists which were the records compiled by Mr. K. Brundle of the PWD on Pom Pong Island were taken by the informal leader on the Island, Major Nunn, when he later boarded the ill-fated “SS. Rooseboom” in Padang and the lists were lost with him when it sank in the Indian Ocean.

There were many Chinese women and children of Chinese onboard. The story of the Low family is an important example in this context (see NIL) because it illustrates how Chinese faced a dangerous and ambiguous position after escaping and then having to live under the rule of the Japanese – theoretically accepted as part of the new order, but in fact more often they were cruelly persecuted. Mrs. Low and her children were, with some other Chinese people (and also she records, a ‘Captain Ross’ plus some other some Europeans and Eurasians) taken by a tongkang from Pom Pong island to a fishing village called Ek Chai. “Ek Chai” was the Chinese transliteration of the village called “Redjaj” which was en-route to Senejang, where the Dutch had a small administrative centre. The Chinese were left there in the care of the villagers and the Europeans and Eurasians continued to “…a place where there was a hospital…”

A large number of the Pom Pong Island survivors were rescued by Captain Bill Reynolds in the ex Japanese fishing boat (later to become the famous “Krait” which was used by Allied commandos to mine ships in Singapore harbour) he had commandeered in Singapore – 76 people on his first trip on 18.2.42 and a further 96 on his second rescue on about 20.2.42. Others left on Chinese junks including the “Hung Jao”, the 66 ton coastal launch “Numbing”, the 30 foot long, log burning steam launch “Plover” (according to Richard Gough in his book “Escape from Singapore”) and the SHB barge “Heather” - either sent to collect them or which had been just passing by on the way to Sumatra.

Thanks are recorded to survivors Mrs. Brenda Macduff, Shirley Eames, the late Mr. Stanley Jewkes, and the late Mr. Ken Hartley for their first hand memories, comments and access to their records about the voyage and sinking of the “SS. Kuala”; and also Jonathan Moffatt, and the late John Brown for their invaluable assistance with significant sources of information for this research.

The researcher particularly would like to record sincere thanks to Ms. Hao Chen for her truly invaluable assistance in clarifying the identities of Chinese passengers on board and providing major amplification to the detail of the events and people involved. The book written by her grandfather, Dr. Chen Su Lan, has proven to be an invaluable insight into the events and behaviours during those days of pain and chaos - it is recommended that anyone seeking an honest understanding should read the book in the National Library of Singapore.

Information has been recorded in its original form wherever possible in the interests of not distorting what is known – it therefore includes some historical inaccuracies or uncertainties which are shown in italics where relevant.

Another excellent book covering this event at Pom Pong Island, from a different perspective, is that written by Geoffrey Brooke titled “Singapore’s Dunkirk”, published in 1989 by Leo Cooper, ISBN 0-85052-051-7. Geoffrey Brooke was a Lieutenant in the Royal Navy and was on the ship the “Kung Wo” which had left Singapore with about 200 men (including at least 100 from the Singapore naval Base) and after being attacked from the air anchored several miles from Pom Pong island some hours before the “SS. Kuala” and was sunk after all aboard (except a Chinese stoker who had been killed) escaped in the lifeboats to a nearby island.

For those who wish to understand the geographical position of Pom Pong Island and the “SS. Kuala” I quote from the Public Works Department of Malaya Diary for 14th February 1942:

- Dawn on February 14th found two of these ships anchored a quarter of a mile to the S.W. of Pompong Island in the Lingga Archipelago. The ‘Kuala’ was 300 yards west of the ‘Tien Kwang’ and another refugee ship; the “Kwang Wu” which had been bombed and abandoned the previous day lay some 2 miles to the S.W.
- Pulau Pompong is about 1 mile long and half a mile wide just north of the equator and in Longitude 104 degrees 20 degrees E. It has a small sandy beach on the N.E. side and a mangrove strip to the west. The rest of the island is rocky and semi-precipitous. It rises sharply to a central back which runs N.W. / S.E. 400ft high and is covered with jungle but no fruit trees. Pig was seen but there are no mosquitoes.

Not surprisingly since this was recorded by highly skilled engineers, this is a very accurate description. Using Google Maps (both the Map and the Satellite options) the reader can find Pom Pong Island at the coordinates of 0.369 / 104.259; lying directly west of Pulau (means island) Pinta and North West of Pulau Senayang (which is itself west of Pulau Temiang).

By way of background on the ship prior to all these events Dr Chen Su Lan recorded that based on an account given to him by one of the ship’s ‘boys’ amongst the crew “… the ship was in Penang when it fell … she was bombed more than once whilst rescuing survivors from other ships and was brought to Singapore in safety. He was sure that owing to her clever skipper, she was a difficult target whilst in motion …” (CSL).

This list positively identifies or recognizes the presence on board of almost all (about 650) of the passengers and crew on the “SS. Kuala” but there appears to be about 40-50 more people yet to be identified. If anyone has additions, deletions or corrections to this material it would be gratefully received in the interests of achieving a high degree of accuracy - would you please email Michael Pether at mncpether@xtra.co.nz who will copy all the organizations and individuals using this document in websites etc, with the updates. JPB = Japanese Propaganda Broadcast, publicized in a 1943 edition of the Malayan Research Bureau bulletin, of a list of people ostensibly ‘captured’ on the “SS. Tanjong Pinang” after it had picked up around 208 survivors of the Kuala” sinking from Pom Pong Island. This is also recorded in the book “Singapore to Freedom” and the MRB bulletin in the Imperial war Museum and the National Archives of Australia. As can be seen from the correlation of names in the list below, this has proven to be a very accurate list (they even have the first names of several people on board who are listed by the CWGC with only initials) of people on the “Tanjong Pinang”.

A private letter (from someone in the Survey Dept., Singapore) to the widow of Captain Basil Shaw, captain of the “TP”, after the war questioned whether this Japanese Broadcast ever happened and attributed it entirely to a list compiled by survivors of the “kuala” gathering names whilst on the beach of Pom Pong Island – after the “TP” had left with its complement of women and children. The reference source title has been left as “Japanese Propaganda Broadcast” because of its historical occurrence in documents of the time. This conclusion is backed up by the finding, during the compilation of this research, that the JPB and the list recorded under the name of survivor Mrs. Luba Ruperti are almost exactly the same – including errors and matters of fine detail. It seems that what happened was in fact that the Malayan Bureau, GHQ. India chose to issue this list under the guise of it originating during a Japanese Broadcast. At that time they would not known that the “TP” had been sunk with almost total loss of life.

McCormick = interview by author and war time Malaya historian Audrey McCormick of survivor Raymond Frazer, 250 AMES, RAF in 2002.

Passengers and Crew:
• AERIA – B. Aeria “…recovered from Padang with two children…” (ALFSEA); if this list which states that this person was on the “Kuala” is correct, then it seems to have been Mrs. Gladys Aeria, aged 34 years, of 29 Martaban Road, Singapore and her daughters Collette Aeria, aged about 8 years at the time of the sinking and Patrice Aeria with whom Mrs. Aeria might have been pregnant at the time of the sinking - the source of this information is the Dutch origin listing of internees in the British Women’s camp at Padang in June 1943 which describes Mrs. Aeria as “Indo-Eng” (Mr. H. van den Bos); the fact that Mrs. Aeria and her two daughters were in Bankinang camp is confirmed by Shirley Eames who was a playmate of Patrice Aeria; another reference to “Mrs. Aeria and baby” occurs in the book by Dr Chen Su Lan wherein he says he learned from Mrs. Grace Low that she was picked up by a lifeboat crowded with survivors including … Mrs. Aeria (sic) and baby… whom I later met at Senegang” this means that after the sinking and being picked up by the lifeboat a pregnant Mrs. Aeria and her daughter Collette reached an uninhabited island where they existed on overripe coconuts and water from a barrel picked up from the sea. They were then picked up [with the other 35 occupants of the lifeboat] a day later by a Chinese manned junk and then on 17 February reached Redjai. Presumably from there they found a boat to Sumatra and made their way across Sumatra only to reach Padang too late to be evacuated. (CSL ref Grace Low)

• AERIA – Miss Collette Aeria, aged about 8 years (van den Bos); and who was interned in Bankinang camp

• AERIA – Miss Patrice Aeria, born soon after the sinking (van den Bos); and who was interned in Bankinang camp; Shirley Eames, another survivor aged three years at the time, recalls playing in Bankinang camp and tormenting the Japanese guards (researchers’ correspondence with Shirley Eames during 2010)

• AIRD-SMITH – Brigadier William Aird – Smith, MID, 4th Bn. Rajputna Rifles and in 1942 Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, 11th Indian Division, Malaya, aged 49 years, husband of Dorothy Aird-Smith of Langport, Somerset – died on 17.2.42 (CWGC); on the website “British Generals” he is recorded as being “lost at sea” on 17.2.42; there is recorded a Brigadier “…the Brigadier…” on board the “Kuala” by Major Storry (IWM 01/34/1) – but this could well be a reference to Brigadier Fawcett; William Aird-Smith had married Dorothy Edith Bruche, daughter of Major General Sir Julius Bruche and Lady Bruche of Victoria Barracks, Melbourne on 22.12.28 (Trove – SMH 28.12.28); he was both Deputy Adjutant and Quarter master of the 3rd Indian Brigade in Malaya; after the war there was in “The Argus” on 5.10,45 “… Major – General Sir Julius and Lady Bruche have received information through the Red Cross society that their son-in-law Brigadier William Aird-Smith, Indian Army, who was Brigadier, general staff, 3rd Indian Corps in Malaya died at sea as a result of enemy action in February 1942. Brigadier Aird-Smith served in the war of 1914-18 and was severely wounded. Mrs. Aird-Smith is in India, where she has been serving with the women’s army during the war…” (Trove); Brigadier Aird-Smith is recorded here although it is as yet unproven that he was on the “Kuala” or the “TP” but the date of death of 17.2.42 at sea makes it very likely he was on the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” when he lost his life.

• ALLAN – Janet Elizabeth ALLAN, MAS. B.1898 (Australia) died on “TP” (C85) and (CWGC), wife of Dr. Harry Allan, MAS, Penang (MVG); also Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, MAS, G.G., 1st Aid Post, was seen on the “Kuala” (CAS); Miss Allan, MAS, Singapore – listed as on “TP” (JPB); and again almost certainly the same person as ALLENS – Sister Allen, was with a group of Sisters including Marjorie de Malmanche on the beach at Pom Pong island the day after the sinking when they went for a swim (IWMDM; STF); Miss Allen S.J.B. (CAS) and also ALLENS – Mrs. Husband Private Practitioner in Penang – listed as on “TP”. (JPB) which seems to be a duplicate of the ostensibly Japanese record of Miss Allan, MAS, Singapore above; also Mrs. Allan, wife of Dr. Allan of Penang transshipped to “TP” (PODC); also Miss E. Allen, Singapore, left on “TP” (Ruperti)

• ALLEGRO – Mrs. Marjorie Allgrove (PRO list of people believed to be on “Kuala”); also there is Mrs. M. Allgrove, wife of L/Cpl. J. W. Allgrove listed as being on “Kuala” (ALFSEA); however the CWGC lists Marjorie Allgrove, aged 41 years, wife of J. W. Allgrove of Muar river Estate, Johore as dying on 13.2.42 on the “Giang Bee” (CWGC)

N. Ayers, a Sister Gavin (Garvin) reported that Sister Evans saw Sister Ayers swimming out to someone in difficulty (but this is not noted as such in Sister Garvin’s report), listed as missing in 1943 (CAS); Sister Eileen Norah Ayers, QAIMNS, #206581, died 14.2.42 (CWGC)

BAGNALL – Sir Jol (sic) Bagnall “…on Kuala made for unknown destination with Donald Grant…” (Mrs. E. Cross at PRO); Sir John Bagnall on “Kuala” (ALFSEA); Sir John Bagnall (1888-1954) was Chairman & Managing Director of Straits Trading Co.; he survived the war and was reported on an inbound ship into Singapore in 1947 (Straits Times); however one of his senior managers at the Straits Trading Co., Ltd. Mr. B. J. Cramer, recorded that he was in fact on the “Tien Kwang” with him and reached India and then Johannesburg. He died aged 66 years of age in Jo’burg in 1954 (McCormick)

BAILLIE - Isabelle Nesbitt Baillie. (British). Died around sinking of “Kuala”. (C236) and wife of Mr. S. M. Baillie (CWGC); also recorded as wife of QMS Stanley M. Baillie and that she was from North Berwick (Moffatt)

Known to have been on SS Kuala which was bombed and sunk…possibly lost in this bombing, but nothing definitely known (letter from her sister Mrs. L. S. Davis, Auckland, NZ to the NZ missing and POW agency Nov. 1947) from this letter it was learned that Mrs. Ball was also the sister of Mrs. Lucy Penseler who also lost her life in the sinking of the “TP”; Mrs. D. Ball, VAD, Singapore boarded “TP” (ALFSEA); also Dorothy Ball was originally from New Zealand and the sister-in-law of Mrs. Thea McIntyre - see below (source Jamie Norris and Bev Norris, the latter is the granddaughter of Thea McIntyre’s husband Hugh McIntyre) Nurse Dorothy Kirker Ball, aged 36 years, Chatsworth Military Hospital, Singapore. Of Bukit Koman, Selangor, FMS., Wife of Frank Ball - died on 17.2.42 on “TP” (C255) and (CWGC) and also, in view of the wording of the following, her husband was possibly on the “Kuala” as well,

BALL – “…Ball, F. RACM. Naval Base Workshops wife Kuala…” (BPPL)

BARCLAY – Mr. Barclay on “Kuala” (Ruperti); “… Mr. & Mrs. Bartlett [sic this is most likely BARCLAY] and son of 6 years, who had a different name (?) first marriage) who were on the “Kuala” got to an island on a raft, separated from her boy. She saw someone else take the boy and put him on another raft which was carried away on the tide and has not been heard of since. She left probably on Terry’s boat which took them to Tembilihan “… (JFW); interestingly a Mr. G. Barclay, merchant, Singapore is listed as having embarked to safety from Padang on 1.3.42

BARCLAY – “…Mrs. Barclay & son (missing)…” (Ruperti); “… Mr. & Mrs. Bartlett [sic this is most likely BARCLAY] and son of 6 years, who had a different name (?) first marriage) who were on the “Kuala” got to an island on a raft, separated from her boy. She saw someone else take the boy and put him on another raft which was carried away on the tide and has not been heard of since. She left probably on terry’s boat which took them to Tembihan …” (JFW); however a Mrs. G. Barclay is listed as embarking on a ship in Padang on 1.3.42 (ECEP); also Mrs. G. M. PADANG … “(BPPL); “… Mr. Steel, Manager, Eastern Bank ltd & H. Barden, accountant sailed on the “Kuala” and, I understand from the Manager of the Eastern Bank, Bombay, that they were last heard of in Sumatra “…(Proud); since Mr. Barden appears in the internees list for Palembang and does not appear in the Padang list it is clear that he was a Palembang internee and there will remain open the question as to which ship he actually left Singapore on.

BARNES – Mrs. Barnes listed as on “TP” (JPB); could be Mrs. Barnett below?

BARNETT – Mrs. Barnett, later boarded “TP” and, when it sank, survived for several days on a raft but sadly drowned after leaving life raft to swim to nearby islands (Matron Bredner statement); wife of Barnett, Agricultural Dept – listed as on “TP” (JB); Mrs. Barnett boarded “TP” (ALFSEA); Mrs. Jean Patricia Barnett (British), b. 1915 died on “TP” (C281) and aged 27 years, wife of Mr. H.

Bisseker was number two to Brigadier Symonds in charge of Civil Defence, I believe…” (TKD p. 119); also “…we came up [to Padang] with Bisseker of the Eastern Smelting, Panang, who had been on the vessel [the “Kuala”] which took Wool lenton’s party out of Singapore…” (letter 2.4.42 by Mr. W. G. H., Singapore; a Catherine Boudville married a George Rignall in Penang in 1949; a telephone conversation by the researcher with Catherine Rignall in 2010 revealed that she had drifted in the sea for almost two days before being rescued by Malay fishermen; she made it across Sumatra to Padang only to arrive too late to be evacuated and was interned in Padang and then Bankinang camps; Mrs. Rignall now lives in Sydney, NSW, Australia (MNCP)

- BRADLEY - Colin Bradley, listed as on “Kuala” and buried Senajang (ALFSEA); however this is at variance with “…A/S/Lt. Colin Ridings Bradley, MRNVR, Giang Bee, Customs Officer, Parit Buntar...” (MVD & ADM 199/266A).

- BRADLEY - Mr. R. P. Bradley, PWD (PWD list at PRO); in Australia (ALFSEA)

- BRADLEY - Mr. E. F. Brady, PWD (PWD list at PRO); also ALFSEA list

- BRANCH - Miss M. Branch, Q.A. (killed) died nearing Tembilan (sic) Peritonites (sic) (CAS)

- BRAND - Sub. Lt. T. S. Brand, an officer in the crew of the “Kuala” Survived sinking. (WNSF); also listed as officer (I. A. Inglis list PRO); also ALFSEA list; also “…BRAND T S Ch OFF KUALA MISSING…” (BPPL)

- BRAND - Nursing Sister, she survived the sinking of the “Kuala” but died later from wounds incurred in the bombing at Pom Pong Island (SIA); Miss M. Brand, QAIMNSR, 1st Malayan General Hospital, “…died following blast of abdomen. Buried in Tembilahan, Sumatra, death witnessed by Col. Hennessey, RAMC; and Maj. Kilgow, RAMC...” (Evans); Miss M. Brand, Sister Mary Brand, QAIMNS, #206787, daughter of Charles and Lucy Brand of King’s Heath, Birmingham died 16.2.42 (CWGC); she is presumably buried at Pompong Island

- BRAY - Mr. P. A. Bray, aged 52 years, of Malayan Electrical Supply, was interned in Bankinang Men’s Camp, Sumatra (Mr. H. van den Bos); a post war record indicating that he had been on the “Kuala” states “…Mr. P. Bray, Electrical Dept., Kuala Lumpur, recovered Padang…” (ALFSEA)

- BREBNER - Matron. Singapore (STF); also Miss Brebner seen on Pom Pong island (CAS); on Pom Pong island Marjorie de Malmanche records “…just then I saw Miss Brebner, Matron - Singapore...with her handbag under her arm, struggling down the hillside. She said how happy she was to see us alive. She was heartbroken about all her nurses and Sisters killed and injured. She herself was killed two days later...” also recorded that “…she boarded “TP” (IWMDM); listed as on “TP” (JPB): Matron Margaret Brebner, General Hospital, Singapore, age 57, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brebner, Aboyne, Aberdeenshire - died on “TP” (CWGC); Miss Brebner had been nursing in Kelantan in 1928, by 1934 was Matron of the women’s hospital at Kota Bahru, and became matron of Singapore General Hospital in 1939 (Straitstimes); there is another record with a different story on the death of Matron Brebner which is in CO 980/217 which is a report by Lt. F. T. Goodwin to the Malayan Research Bureau, Sydney in 1943 where he states”... Sister Jones also on “TP” (IWMDM); listed as officer (I. A. Inglis list PRO); also ALFSEA list; also “…BRAND T S Ch OFF KUALA MISSING…” (BPPL)

- BRENT - Miss S. Brent in Singapore (ALFSEA); possibly Sylvia Brett mentioned below.

- BRETT - “…Mrs. Brett left on the “TP” with Miss I. Brett, Miss E. Brett and Miss S. Brett…” (Ruperti); Mrs. Dorothy Victoria Brett (British). B.1897. Aged 45 years, wife of Harry Cyril Brett, 3 Namly Ave., Bukit Timah Road, Singapore - died on “TP” (C544) and (CWGC); the Brett family were friends with the Hartleys (the boys having attended boarding school together and then offered the Hartleys accommodation when they arrived in Singapore) and it appears there were four or five children in this family on the “Kuala”; Mrs. Brett, Joan and Eleanor must all have landed on the “beach camp” side of the Island since they were never seen on Pom Pong island by Kenneth Hartley before they must have boarded the “TP” (who was a friend of the Brett children) also ALFSEA records a D. Brett as having been on the “TP” but recovered Sumatra but this must be an error with Sylvia Brett recorded below

- BRETT - Eleanor Barbara Delicia Brett (British). Aged 4 years, daughter of above. B. 1938. Died on “TP” (C545) and (CWGC); also on ALFSEA list for “TP”;

BRETT - a Miss Brett was seen on the “Kuala” (CAS); a Miss S. Brett is recorded with the above as having been on the “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); ALFSEA list records an S. Brett as being on the “TP” but having been recovered Sumatra; more definitively a Miss Sylvia Brett, aged 16 years in June 1943, and with the address of 3 Namley Avenue, Bukit Timah, Singapore, described as “Indo-Eng”, is listed as being interned in the British Women’s camp at Padang; Dr. Chen Su Lan in his book said that at Pulau Temiang, other people were rescued by villagers and brought to the island including “Mrs. J” [this appears to be Mrs. Jones who was the aunt of the Hartley children who were friends with the Brett children] and a 13 to 14 year old girl ‘companion’. Mrs. J. did not behave as though she was related to the girl and apparently left the girl on an island when Mrs. J. was rescued [it is possible that this was Sylvia Brett since when they arrived at Senajang Dr. Chen Su Lan met the younger brother of the 13 to 14 year old girl who was most likely – from deduction – the Master M. C. Brett listed below] (CSL); Kenneth Hartley has recorded that Sylvia Brett, daughter of Mrs. Brett above, survived Muntok prison and returned to live in Singapore – so this is the oldest child of Harry and Dorothy Brett; post war a Miss Sylvia Brett married Mr. Nagle Yap in Singapore (ST 5.9.54 photo) and before the War she is reported as being in a fancy dress parade with Joan and Malcolm Brett (ST 9.10.36). By 1960 Mrs. Sylvia Yap had become Head of Telecoms in Singapore and an ardent supporter of women and girls playing sport. More recently a Mrs. Sylvia Yap is recorded as a school teacher. She certainly has been a woman with drive who made a success of life after the trauma of her teenage years!

BRETT - There was also a 14 year old boy interned in Padang and Bankinang camps by the name of M. C. Brett – it seems highly possible that he might have also been part of the above family (in fact the ST 9.10.36 records Sylvia, Joan and Malcolm Brett in a fancy dress parade so it is almost certain that this is Sylvia and Joan’s brother or cousin); Master M. C. Brett was born 1928 and firstly interned in the British Women’s camp in Padang (he must have been about 14 years old), later transferred to the Men’s camp in Padang and then on 18.10.43 he was transferred to the Bankinang men’s Camp (Mr. H. van den Bos records); Kenneth Hartley has recorded that one of his school friends Malcolm Brett (about 14 years) and the son of Harry and Dorothy Brett, survived the sinking of the “Kuala” and Muntok camp and returned to live in Singapore after the war, years later he went to live in Sydney or Melbourne

BREWER – Mrs. F. W. Brewer, from Singapore, boarded “TP” (STF); also listed as Mrs. Nell Brewer (list of civilians who were on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); this is in fact Mrs. Mary Ellen “Nell” Brewer who married Frank Brewer [born 1886] in London in the early 1900s [he then appears to have married a Monica Mary Evans in Singapore in 1921 but she died in 1925 - source ‘Strait Times’ – and by 1929 passenger lists show him again married to Mary Ellen, they had a daughter Eileen who married in Singapore in 1933, after the War Frank married again to a Mary Helena according to 1960 passenger lists – source MJ]; in a letter dated 23.4.43 from Lavender’s Hotel, Bangalore, India Mr. Frank W. Brewer explains that “...Dear Nell, on the day we were ordered out, went through the gate (in front of the Ocean Building) first, with all the Sisters from the General Hospital and the Q. A. Sisters, and they all left on the Straits Steamship boat the “Kuala”...”, he then sadly continues in his letter “...The ‘Kuala’ was sunk off the island of Pom Pom which is the most north-westerly of the Lingga Archipelago. Nell swam ashore with Dr. Honeywell and got there safely, though Honeywell was wounded while swimming, by a bomb which dropped in the water near them. Nell and two hundred other women were taken off the Pom Pom Island on the night of February 17th by a little 60 ton cargo launch called “Tanjong Pinang”. Pat Gilmour (Municipality) [this appears to be Oswald Gilmour author of ‘Singapore to Freedom’] carried Nell out over the rocks and actually put her on board this little boat. The “Tanjong Pinang” apparently tried to make it to Batavia, an insane thing to do at that time as the Japs were attacking Palembang near the entrance to the Banka Straits. She was captured by the Japs at Mundok (sic), at the entrance to the Banka Straits, and the ship and all aboard were sent back to Singapore ...........”; also listed as on “Kuala” or “Tien Kwang” was F. Brewer Architect, seen Daboh (passenger list at PRO, ) but in fact he had been on the “Grasshopper”, which was sunk, and he then journeyed through Dabo (F.W. Brewer letter 1943 from Bangalore, India); he made the voyage from Dabo to Tembitian in the small boat operated by Messrs. Hedley, Parsons and Poole – also in this boat were Messrs Potts, Joyce, Feakes and Riviere (STF); Frank Wilman Brewer, was aged 56 years at the time of the “Kuala” sinking and had been an Architect in Singapore since 1920. He had designed the Capitol Building (cinema and flats), Singapore in 1938. When he returned to Singapore after the War he designed the Odeon Cinema as well as many other buildings. He retired to Jersey and died in 1971. (Moffatt and Straits Times)
• BRIDGES – Noel Bridges is recorded in Thomas Kitching’s diary (TKD p.59) on 13.2.42 as “…And Noel Bridges has gone to Java. He doffed his Colonel’s uniform yesterday, so was a Colonel for 2 days…”; “…Mr. Bridges, Survey Dept, listed as being on the “Kuala”, then probably missing on “Rooseboom” (ALFSEA); other records indicate that Mr. Bridges actually boarded the “SS. Ban Ho Guan” a day after the “Rooseboom” left Padang and he was lost in the sinking of that ship on 28.2.42 by a Japanese submarine with all hands lost.

• BRIGGS – Lt. (WNSF); this is in fact Lt. W. G. Briggs, the Captain of the “Tien Kwang” who reached safety in Colombo. (JM Malayan List)

• BRISK – Miss Esther Regina Brisk (born Singapore 1909), a stenographer working for D. H. Kleinman (see below) of Queens Ltd., had boarded the “Kuala” with her employer (who died of injuries later). Her family lived in a large house on East Coast Road. Her father, Albert Wolfe Brisk, and brothers remained in Singapore where they were interned in Changi and Sime Road. Esther entered the water when the ship was bombarded and was swept out to sea where she floated for eight hours before being rescued by Chinese fishermen and taken to an island. She was captured by the Japanese and interned in Sumatra. A “…very precise person who was well regarded in her working life. She was very diligent…” according to her sister Lulu, Esther contracted Ber8i Beri and experienced great psychological stress in internment. She was treated at the Liverpool Tropical Diseases unit after the war went back to Singapore a couple of times during the 1940’s and 1950’s before finally moving to Britain in 1957. She died in 1983.

She married Arthur Cecil Brooks, an Assistant Government analyst in 1931. She worked in the Chemistry dept in Singapore. She was on the “Kuala” and spent seven hours in the water after the sinking before being rescued by Malay fishermen. A month later she was captured by the Japanese and interned in Sumatra (Trove newspaper website “The Western Australian” 11.1045) and was repatriated (wearing the same clothes she was wearing the day the ‘Kuala’ was sunk) to Freemantle on the ‘Tamaroa’ on 10.10 45. Her husband was an internee in Changi and Sime road. They had two children who met them in Perth in 1945. She died in East Surrey in November 2001. (Moffatt).

• BROOKS – Ethel. (British), on “Kuala”. (C592) this person is unidentified insofar as someone with the name ‘Ethel’ but it may be a confusion with Mrs. Rachel Brooks (above) since there were numerous reports with different spellings of her name

- BULLEN – Miss E. Bullen, Singapore (Inglis list at PRO); it is the opinion of the researcher of this document that “Miss E. Bullen” must be presumed dead during the sinking of the ‘Kuala’/the ‘Tandjong Pinang’ or the ‘Rooseboom’ – it is hard to prove who this person was but by way of background a Miss Annie Evaline Bullen (who was born in St. Austell, Cornwall in 1879-80) went to Singapore on a ship in 1928 (she may have originally gone there earlier) and is recorded (SG) as having been a Matron of St Mary’s Home, Singapore from 1923-28 when she “…left to take up other work”; soon after (SG in January 1929) a Miss Bullen of 29 Killiney Road, Singapore was advertising rooms to let plus “…cuisine and a garage”; family knowledge of Annie Evaline Bullen is from a niece who was told “…she was last seen on the [Singapore?] harbour and never heard from again…” and there is no known family record of her ever getting in touch with her family again (Jane Davies email 2.2.2012)

Two days after the shipwreck, he was washed up on a small island south of Pulau Buaya and he was taken to Senajang, where he met up with CHEN Su Lan and told him that he had been separated from CHEN’s son during the night (from oral family history of Ms. Hao Chen); also from the book by CSL “[Chang said] ‘We were together all the time, I on the raft and he in the water until a huge wave swept all away in the darkness. I clung with all my might to a rope on the raft and drifted, I don’t know how long, to an island. I was the only one left on the raft’. The island he [Chang] drifted to was called Pulau Skring and is the farthest island of the Lingga Archipelago in the west beyond which was open sea and no more islands.” (Ref CSL); Chang Shih was a “science teacher in the Chinese High School at Bukit Timah Road”. Chang Shih subsequently returned to Singapore in June 1942 together with WANG (from Tien Kwang), and then made his way to China, “…via Southern Siam, Saigon, Haifong, then Kwangchow-wan” This was also the same route used by Wang to China. • CHEN – Dr. Chen Su Lan (13 February 1885 - 5 May 1972) was one of Singapore’s first local medical graduates. He was also an anti-opium fighter, philanthropist and social reformer. Born in Fuzhou, China, Chen was a third generation Methodist. In 1905 he left for Singapore where he enrolled to become one of the first students at what was later known as the king Edward VII College of Medicine. He graduated as a doctor and became very concerned with health and social problems in Singapore. He boarded the “Kuala” and after the bombing at Pom Pong Island he ended up clinging to a raft with a few other survivors. After many hours floating and once landing on a rocky islet, they landed on shore at a small mangrove beach before next morning being rescued by a Malay fisherman named Hamid and taken to his village at Skapai on Pulau Temiang Island, he was brought to Redjaj, then to Senajang where he was reunited with his son CHEN Chi Nan, A Chinese shopkeeper offered then refuge in an island called Pulau Manis. They made their way back to Singapore a few months later. After his return to Singapore he was detained by the Kempetai. They later released him after about ten days. In 1946 he founded the Chinese YMCA in Singapore and after his shipwreck experience he founded the Chen Su Lan Trust in 1947; in 1968 the Chen Su Lan Methodist Children’s Home was started with funds from the Trust. He published a book “Remember Pompong and Oxley Rise “which includes a very valuable and detailed account of the “SS. Kuala” shipwreck and some individual survivors, as well as accounts of Japanese treatment of civilians during their occupation of Singapore (Wikipedia and obituaries in “Straits Times” archive 6.5.72 p. 32 and with information from his son, CHEN Chi Nan, and granddaughter Hao Chen – SEE ALSO DR. TAN SU SAN and son CHEN Chi Nan below

• CHEN – Chen Chi Nan, b. Singapore 1922, the son of Dr. CHEN Su Lan (above) and the misspelling of his father’s name TAN SU LAN (below); he enrolled at medical college, Singapore in 1941(“Straits Times’ archives); at age nineteen years he boarded the ‘SS. Kuala” with his father and when the ship was bombed at Pom Pong island he was carried away by currents and spent two days and a night at sea. He held on to two rafts with approximately 20 people on them. During the night, the raft he was accompanying was upset by waves. He went to retrieve a boy who could not swim, at the boy’s mother’s request, and ended up being separated from the raft. Except for CHANG Shih (see below), all the people on the raft including a ship’s officer who had been on the “Kuala” were lost overnight. After drifting and swimming for approximately 30 hours, he finally reached a small island called Pulau Buaya, where he was rescued by a passing Malay fisherman, who took him to Senajang in search of his father. At Senajang, TAN Hoan Khim and his family very kindly offered them refuge in another small island where he had a charcoal kiln, Pulau Manis, which was more isolated and safer from the Japanese (or informers). They stayed in Pulau Manis for a few months before they returned to Singapore where he and his father spent the remainder of the War. NOTE: PULAU MANIS: The other shipwreck survivors who were also given refuge in Pulau Manis by the very kind and generous TAN Hoan Khim family were HSU Cheng Hsun (passenger on the “Kuala”) and LIM Chin Hiong (see list below) and a Miss HSU (not a relation of HSU Cheng Hsun). (Ms. Hao Chen, daughter, Sydney, May 2012 from information provided by Chen Chi Nan); SEE ALSO MASTER TAN (below)

• DORRITY – Mr. G. O. Dorrity, British, - died around sinking of “Kuala” on 14.2.42 (CWGC); Dorrity (senior) missing at Pom Pong (passenger list at PRO); somewhat at odds with this is the ALFSEA record at the immediate conclusion of the War is “…MR. G. O Dorrity, PWD, reached Padang…” so there was clearly some question here; also “…Dorrity G. O. ex PWD left with Wynne NEI?…” (BPPL); [possibly connected here is Deputy Inspector Melvin Llewellyn Wynne, S.S. Police Force, who died 4.4.42 (CWGC) - there is a contemporary record that Wynne died around 4 – 8. 4.42 of dysentery at Pladjoe near Palembang (BPPL)]; Mr. Geo. O. Dorrity was a long term resident of Singapore and possible World War One veteran - he is noted in 1914 as having a steamer in Singapore and also that year being a guest at dinner with Tunku Abu Bakan of Trengganu (Straits Times); he was also a friend of Mr. A. Wear of the PWD who talks of Dorrity in his diary where he said that Dorrity had worked for the PWD in Trengganu during about 1928-30 and had retired in Kuantan. Age 34 years.”… Young school mistress form Malacca; suffered both legs injured and one amputated on beach at Pom Pong Island; died in Padang on night of 17.2. 42.” (IWMDM) - this seems logistically incorrect since Padang was many • DOUGHTY – “… Doughty R. L. S.S. / R. E. bvd. Drowned…” (BPPL) this may be another member of the Doughty family – in fact Mr. Doughty could be the interpretation - on the “Kuala” but there is no direct information link and he could have been on another ship,

• DOWLING – Miss N. G. Dowling, QAIMNSR on “Kuala” (Inglis list at PRO); Miss. G. Duncan’s second daughter, Jean, had a splinter wound in the loin which I dressed with dressings from a soldier’s first aid case. She was crying bitterly whilst Mrs. Violet Duncan looked like one in a tiger’s cage …“(CSL) the Duncan’s were in fact friends of Dr Chen Su Lan and Violet Duncan was the wife of W.W. Duncan a robust, hardworking man, recently made Director of A.R.P. [Air Raid Precautions]… who had said he was notified of the ship’s sailing in the afternoon and had great difficulty in deciding whether or not to send his family at this late hour. Believing that his Chinese wife and two European – looking daughters would not be spared by the enemy, he took the plunge [and sent them on the ‘Kuala’] … also … Duncan[at the wharves] came with a rattan basket of his baby’s diapers and feeding bottles etc which he had forgotten in a hurry … the same night my friends at home received a telephone message from Duncan that he had been stabbed by a soldier at the wharf and had to go to hospital … (CSL); “… while the Kula was moored off Pom Pong island Dr Chen Su Lan recalled seeing “… Violet Duncan going to the pantry for boiling water for her baby”, when he arrived at Senajang “… there was no sign of Violet Duncan or her baby or daughters …” (CSL); in fact it is also recorded that “…Jean Duncan’s mother and two little sisters were amongst those who thankfully went aboard [the “TP”] … That grieving mother would never know that her eldest daughter had survived the wreck of the “Kuala”…” (QH); Mrs. Violet Duncan, applicant for PODC was Mr. W. Jean Duncan’s Scottish father had stayed to fight for Singapore when the child was put on board the “Kuala”. In the confusion of the shipwreck, Jean had become separated from her Chinese mother and two baby sisters. Wilhelmina was one of 12 children in the large and popular van der Straaten family in Kula Lumpur – their family life was busy, social and the children experienced a very happy existence in the pre – War years. Wilhelmina had worked in an accountant’s office in Singapore prior to the war and her marriage and, as did most vivacious and social young women at the time, danced at Raffles and attended the society events such as the races. The family recounts that she even encountered and danced with the Prince of Wales during his state visit to Singapore. She was a slim, petite, and charming young woman with an engaging smile and a tendency for after a long engagement. They moved into special quarters at the mines and enjoyed the typical expatriate life of a household supported by a cook, a syce, a gardener and an Amah. More often than not the whole family (except children) would go dancing at the Bukit Bintang dance Hall and the Selangor Club — this was a large widely related family thoroughly modern dress fashions. She married the young Englishman Benn Eames in 1936 which enjoyed each other’s company. Grandfather van der Straaten was proud of his Dutch ancestry and the family tree was housed in a long metal container along with his cherished coat of arms. When the Japanese invasion occurred the family went to stay with the Newmans in Singapore. Grandfather van der Straaten took his large family to the docks and waved them off — Wilhelmina did not know that this would be the last time she would see her father who would later die in internment just a few weeks before the end of the war. This researcher has been privileged to learn of the experiences of Wilhelmina and Shirley and is able to quite the following account of what happened after the bombs hit at Pom Pong Island “… the Captain was ordering everyone to leave the ship. He saw mum hesitate ‘Jump or I’ll have to push you’, he shouted. Mum could not swim but she prepared to jump. The three women elected to jump together. At the last minute, Dickie (Newman) threw Mum a child’s lifejacket. Sybil turned to Mum and said ‘Where’s a man when you need one’. Mum turned to me and told me to hold tight, then she closed her eyes and jumped into the sea. Sybil, a strong swimmer went next carrying Bill; Dickie Newman held Sally Ann, and someone took Michael from Molly. That was the last Mum saw of her sisters-in-law. The currents were so strong we were swept right away from the ship. She (Wilhelmina) remembered the fear and the cold, being so completely at the mercy of those waves… She could not see her sisters-in-law, was just aware of screams as people thrashed about in the water. Some had lost their minds, believing they were still in Singapore and trying to hail a taxi. We drifted further and further. Only my lifejacket kept us afloat. As the day progressed the screams and shouting grew fainter… We floated, just the two of us, when Mum heard her name called, ‘Mina, Mina’. She thought she was hallucinating when a figure bobbed up. It was Millie Hartley, Mum’s cousin. Millie was a strong swimmer, but both her legs had been injured [by bomb blast or shock]. She got Mum to put her legs on top of Millie’s injured ones, and the three of us floated together… We floated on and I sang all the while, every song I knew… as the day went on Mum became convinced we were going to die. ‘At least we will go together,’ said a defiant Mille. Darkness was falling with no sign of rescue. ‘I’d overheard them talking. ‘We are not going to die’; I promised ‘Jesus will send us a boat’. I fell asleep. When I awoke it was very late evening…’I called out there is a boat’ and there was, just a sampan rowed by Malay fishermen. We were hauled out of the water, and with several others who had been rescued, were taken that night to a small fishing village with houses built on the water on stilts…” Wilhelmina and Shirley recuperated and then spent weeks travelling from island to island and then crossing Sumatra. Sadly they arrived too late to be evacuated and were interned firstly in Padang and then in the Bankinang Women’s Internment camp. Both survived the war to return to the UK and then later Kuala Lumpur before finally settling in the UK. Wilhelmina Eames passed away in 2004 after a long battle with cancer (Correspondence between Shirley Eames and the researcher 2010 and 2011)

Buried at Pom Pong Island by the PWD party, after being killed by a bomb after swimming away from the “Kuala” (Captain David Nelson, Bureau of Record and Enquiry records compiled in Changi POW camp); also “Mr. A. E. Fallows, PWD, killed and buried on Pompong (PWD list at PRO); Major Albert Edward Fallows, FMSVF, aged 44 years, husband of Sarah Mary Fallows of Bournemouth, Hampshire he died 14.2.42 and is memorialized on Column 389 at the Kranji Cemetery (CWGC) again it appears that the CWGC have the incorrect date for the death of Mr. Fallows (see Wear diary later in this entry); there is also an (extremely unlikely) mention that he might have died on the “SS. ROOSEBOOM” (MVG); Albert Fallows was born in Bolton on 8.1.98 and attended Bolton Church Institute School in Bolton, Lancashire. He served as a 2nd Lt in the Royal Garrison Artillery during WWI where he was badly wounded. After the war he graduated in Civil Engineering from Bristol University and briefly worked for the Bolton Borough Council Engineering Dept before taking up a new appointment as Assistant Engineer, Anti-malaria Branch, FMS. By 1940 he was Executive Engineer of the Public Works Dept at its head office in Kuala Lumpur. He also served as a Major in the Selangor Btn, FMSVF, and was killed while swimming away from the “Kuala” at Pom Pong Island; in the diary of Mr. A. Wear, PWD he explicitly states “… Poor Fallows from the PWD died from the effects of blast and I organized a burial party – it took some hours of tired effort to make a shallow grave with axes and bits of wood. Gardiner spoke a burial service and we wrote his name on a wooden cross … “ – this entry relates to Wednesday 18 February 1942 in the context of Wear’s account (Wear). He was married to Sarah Mary (known as Sally) and they had two daughters, Rosemary and Jacqueline. There is a memorial to him on his parents’ grave at Christ Church, Harwood, Bolton. The address for Sally and children in the death notice in the Bolton Guardian and Journal, 1 May 1943, was given as 57 Branksome Wood Road, Bournemouth. (Bolton Church Institute School war memorial, Lancashire).

• FALLOWS – Mrs. Sally Fallows, reported lost on the “SS. Rooseboom” but was listed as living in Bournemouth in her husband’s death notice – this could have been a misunderstanding and she presumably survived (MVG); the matter remains a little unclear.

• FARQUHARSON – Mr. Farquharson was a very successful member of the Singapore Police – from at least 1923 until the Fall of Singapore, he was appointed an Inspector in 1923 and by 1924 was in charge of the Weights & Measures section, after that a Court Inspector and awarded the King’s Medal for Bravery in 1932. He is noted in the social pages of the Straits Times in 1936 as embarking on the “Gorgon” on leave for Australia with his wife and three children (Straits Times); Mr. F. Farquharson (sic), Police Retd., on “Kuala” and died in Padang 31.7.42 (ALFSEA); Mr. F. Farquharson, aged 55 years of age, Policeman, was interned in Bankinang Men’s Camp, Sumatra and died on 31.7.42 (Mr. H. van den Bos); Frank Farquharson, aged 52 years, Straits Settlement Police, husband of Hilda Farquharson of South Perth, Western Australia died on 31.7.42 (CWGC); it therefore seems highly likely, but unproven at this stage, that his wife was also on the “Kuala” viz,

• FARQUHARSON Mrs. Hilda Farquharson, aged 47 years and described as Indo-Eng, of 397 New Bridge Road, Singapore was listed as interned in the British Women’s camp, Padang and moving to the Mission Complex on 24./6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bos); given that there appears to have been three children it seems likely that the following person may have been one of their daughters (and possibly another unaccounted for?) killed in the sinking of the “Kuala”,

• FARQUHARSON – Ms. J. Farquarson on “Kuala” (ALFSEA); but appears that her brother survived (with their mother above) as follows,

• FARQUHARSON – Master Ian Farquharson, aged 10 years, of 397 New Bridge Road, Singapore and described as Indo-Eng, was listed as interned in the British Women’s Camp, Padang and moving to the Mission Complex on 24.6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bos)

• FAWCETT – “…the Brigadier was asked to take the service when the two bodies killed on board while leaving Singapore were buried at sea ‘… a terribly raw and bare funeral…’ I thought…” (Major George Richard Storry, IWM 01/34/1), “…senior officers, Army and Air force, were also included[ in the evacuees on the ship] amongst whom was Brigadier General Fosset (sic) who had lost three fingers in the bombing. He nearly passed away…” (edited account of “Kuala” sinking related by the captain of the “SS. Kuala” Lt. Franklin Caithness to the late Cdr. H. V. Creer, RAN – Naval Historical Society of Australia); “…FAWCETT BRGDR? WOUNDED NEI…” (BPPL);
British nurse and survivor, Brenda Macduff recalls nursing and helping a very senior, wounded, Army person, who insisted on getting on the “TP” because he had to go to Sumatra on important military business, down the hill on Pom Pong island to the edge of the water and into one of the boats that was taking mainly women and children out to the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” (BMP). “Brigadier Fawcett, badly wounded, was dragged out of the water [by McHugh] and put on the “TP”…” (J. N. McHugh report, Malayan Research Bureau papers, CO 980/217 National archives Kew); “…the nursing sisters were doing their best to help the wounded. Brenda Lees…..was one of the nurses with us and she felt terribly sorry for a Brigadier who was in considerable pain from a wound in his back…a young Australian and I made two stretcher from rough piece of sail using vines to secure the sail to branches along either side… the Brigadier had one stretcher and a lady had the other and they were pleased to do something to relieve their suffering…” (memoirs of Donald Bruce-Smith, PWD); another record (which seems to have been compiled from hearsay and is patently incorrect) states “Brigadier Fawcett…presumed lost at sea while on his way from Singapore to India to take up his appointment as Director of Military Operations there. However, later evidence suggests that his boat was wrecked on a small island where he and his companions were discovered by the Japanese and killed…” (Roll of Honour, Sedburgh School, Cumbria – where Brigadier Fawcett had been a pupil); Brigadier Walter Lindley Fawcett, MC., General Staff, Commands and Staff, 9th Gurkha Rifles (formerly 2nd Battalion), aged 46 years, husband of Margaret Fawcett of Dunstone, Yealmpton, Devon – he died 13.2.42 (CWGC) – the conclusion from a variety of sources including the living testimony of Nurse Brenda Macduff (stated to the researcher of this document several times during the period 2005-2011) and the testimony of Mr. J. N. McHugh, with both these strongly supported by the report of the captain of the “SS. Kuala, for all practical purposes confirm that Brigadier W. L. Fawcett was on the “Kuala”, was wounded in either his hand or back and left on the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” which resulted in his death on 17 February 1942 (Michael Pether – Researcher); Brigadier Fawcett, born in 1895 and educated at Sedburgh School in Yorkshire, was an officer in the British Indian Army between 1917 and his death in 1942. He had transferred from the British Army which he had joined in 1914, having served in the Great War and being awarded the Military Cross for gallantry. In 1940 he had been promoted to the rank of Colonel and appointed a General Staff Officer 1st Grade at Army headquarters in India but in November of that year he travelled to Singapore to become the Colonel General Staff of Far East Command (which included the three previously independent Army commands and the RAF far East Command..Fawcett was chosen to become the Brigadier general Staff, III Indian Corps when this new Corps was formed in April 1941 (britishmilitaryhistory.co.uk); He married Margaret ‘Margot’ Ann Ilbert and had one daughter, Gillian, later Mrs. Gillian Sutton; the British authorities and CWGC were unable to explain the fate of Brigadier Fawcett to his family in the decades after the war and it was not until this document was compiled and then the BRE records from Changi POW camp were ‘rediscovered’ in 2011 that the circumstances of his death were understood with any real clarity.

- FEAKES – Mr. G. J. Feakes, aged 49 years of age, of Cable & Wireless, was interned in Bankinang Men’s Camp, Sumatra (Mr. H. van den Bos); a post war record indicates that he had been on the “SS. Kuala” and states “…Mr. C. J. FEAKES in Australia …”(ALFSEA)
- FINCH – Mrs. Daisy Winifred Finch, Auxiliary Medical Service, b. 1894 (British), (C1645) Wife of John Colin Finch, civilian internee - she died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC)
- FINLEY – Nurse M.R. Finley – listed as missing 1943. Fate unknown (CAS); Sister Margaret Raven Finley, QAIMNS, aged 31 years, #206133, daughter of Harry and Lilian Finley – she died 14.2.42 (CWGC)
- FISHER – Sister (Miss) Fisher seen on “Kuala” (CAS); possibly two people by this name; Sister Heather Fisher was an Australian, had worked at Batu Gajah Hospital, Ipoh, and was also interned in Bankinang Camp (with Drs Crowe and Lyon, Sister Macduff etc) and nursed in that camp (BMP); there is a question however over whether this Miss Fisher was in fact on the “Kuala” since Marjorie de Malmanche states in her diary “… Miss Fisher was a little older than the rest of us and was very senior in the Colonial Service. She had left Singapore on a gunboat – Grasshopper I think, commanded by Captain Hooper, RNVR. They were shelled and the Captain had to beach the vessel. Casualties were heavy and Miss Fisher received the OBE after the war for her services during and after the action…..” (IWMDM) Nurse H. V. Fisher, Perak, recovered Padang (ALFSEA); also FISHER Ms Heather Victoria, MBE 1946 Australian Nursing Sister, Malayan Medical Service. Aged 42 in 1942. On HMS Grassopper [sunk] then Padang, Sumatra internee. (JM ‘Malayans’).
- FISHER – Nurse D. R. Fisher, in South Africa (ALFSEA)
- FLINT – Mr. and Mrs. Flint seen on “Kuala” (CAS); almost certainly the Flinter’s below
— By 1930 Moritz Flinter had established himself as a well known diamond merchant in Singapore. In 1925 he was living at 3 Mount Sophia. (Straitstimes); Mr. M. Flinter, Diamond merchant, is listed as “…last seen in the NEI…” (MRB 2/43); he was the husband of Lucy Charlotte Flinter who lost her life either in the bombing of the “Kuala” or the sinking of the “Tandjong Pinang” (see below); Moritz Flinter survived the bombing of the ‘Kuala’ and made it to Pom Pong island… he returned to the UK on the ‘Orantes’ and later returned to Singapore in 1946 to resume his diamond business…” (Family account on ‘Singapore Evacuation 1942’ website); Mr. Moritz, A. Flinter Ltd., Penang. Reached Chillichap, DEI. Returned to Malaya in 1946 (MVG); Mr. M. Flinter to UK on “Orantes” (ALFSEA); in 1950 he became engaged to Miss Cecile Albert from Australia (ST 31.10.50); he was the husband of, — Mrs. Lucy L. Flinter, British, wife of Mr. M. Flinter of Singapore — died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Lucy Flinter “…was killed in the first wave of bombng (family account on ‘Singapore Evacuation 1942’ website) however there remains a contradictory record of “…Mrs. Flinter left on the ‘TP’ (Ruperti); immediately after the War a poignant appeal was recorded in the Public Notices of the ‘Straitstimes’ requesting anyone knowing the whereabouts of Lucy Charlotte Flinter to contact M. Flinter, 26A Orchard Road, Singapore (ST 24.10.45)

— Miss Fonseka is first recorded by G. J. O’Grady the raft supported two European nurses, both wounded, Two Indian nurses, one named Miss Fonseka and two wounded soldiers…the raft drifted ashore on the same uninhabited island as O’Grady swam to the following day after earlier leaving the raft (G. J. O’Grady, report No. 3 Malayan Research Bureau); also “Miss Fonsocka… IMNS., 718 hours Davo…” — the meaning is not clear of this latter statement (CAS); Phyllis Fonseka/Fonseca also is part of the [probably more accurate] story related by Dr. Chen Su Lan in his book (CSL) insofar as when he reached a raft on which were O’Grady and five others, this included two young girls, both “…staff nurses of the Indian Medical Service having come to Malaya with the Indian troops” and who he named as Lena Hosie [probably Hussy/Hussie or even Hosie] and Phyllis FONSECA, after O’Grady and a European nurse swam off late in the day they drifted to a rocky islet some 50 feet wide that night [14th] where another survivor from the raft appears to have died and when the tide began to cover the rocks they drifted out to sea before reaching a small mangrove island. The next morning they hoisted a shirt on a long piece of timber and were rescued (again with O’Grady) by a Malay fisherman and taken to his village Skapai on Pulau Temiang where they had a meal of rice and tinned salted cucumbers made in China “our first meal in 30 hours…” (CSL), from there she was presumably taken with others to Senajang; there is also a record of Miss Phyllis Fonseca, aged 26 years of age and described as Indo-Eng. of the 20th Combined General Hospital, Gillman Barracks, Singapore, as interned in the British Women’s Camp, Padang and being moved to the Mission Complex on 24.6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bos); during 1942, Father Louis Ashness, a Eurasian priest from Malacca (at the time) recorded in his papers (now in IWM) that he visited an estate [it is the researchers’ best guess here that he is referring to Phyllis Fonseka]: “…saw one ‘Phillis’, MAS nurse, not able to get home from Singapore. Had left on the Kuala with other MAS. Into the sea with a life belt and clutching a log. Drifted away from the others. To island, fell unconscious. Corpses in the sea – some she knew. Fishing boat refused rescue. Elderly Javanese rescued her in the evening and took her to his house. She said next three days a blank. Englishman came to the hut, said someone would come for her but they had 1000s of casualties on the island so he didn’t know when. No one came. A fisherman agreed to row her over to a small mangrove island. The next morning they hoisted a shirt on a long piece of timber and were rescued (again with O’Grady) by a Malay fisherman and taken to his village Skapai on Pulau Temiang where they had a meal of rice and tinned salted cucumbers made in China “our first meal in 30 hours…” (CSL), from there she was presumably taken with others to Senajang; there is also a record of Miss Phyllis Fonseca, aged 26 years of age and described as Indo-Eng. of the 20th Combined General Hospital, Gillman Barracks, Singapore, as interned in the British Women’s Camp, Padang and being moved to the Mission Complex on 24.6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bos); during 1942, Father Louis Ashness, a Eurasian priest from Malacca (at the time) recorded in his papers (now in IWM) that he visited an estate [it is the researchers’ best guess here that he is referring to Phyllis Fonseka]: “…saw one ‘Phillis’, MAS nurse, not able to get home from Singapore. Had left on the Kuala with other MAS. Into the sea with a life belt and clutching a log. Drifted away from the others. To island, fell unconscious. Corpses in the sea – some she knew. Fishing boat refused rescue. Elderly Javanese rescued her in the evening and took her to his house. She said next three days a blank. Englishman came to the hut, said someone would come for her but they had 1000s of casualties on the island so he didn’t know when. No one came. A fisherman agreed to row her over to the island but he was an opium addict and fell asleep halfway. But a boat came by with a Britisher, B….from the MCS. To island. Many people missing. Dutch sent a launch, so to Singkap (sic) and interned there. Women used as waitresses in the officers’ mess. Japs okay. In the end those born in Malaya were returned to Singapore…”

— Mr. J. M. Fordham, PWD (PWD list at PRO); as a member of the PWD group who boarded the ship Mr. Fordham was known to Mr. A. Wear who recorded in his diary during the retreat to Singapore “… on 29th January we all moved to Singapore. Jack Davies and I planted ourselves on ‘Myddy’ Fordham in Ridley Park [about 3 – 4 miles out from Singapore CBD]… about 10 January… Jap shells were dropping not far away… we dressed, paced our stuff into our cars in the darkness faintly relieved by the glow of burning oil tanks. ‘Myddy’ did the same of course… we went down to the old PWD office in High Street… come Friday 13 February 1942… ‘Myddy’, Jack and I drove off in my car to Telok Ayer basin on the waterfront… about 4 pm we were allowed through… we all got on board at last… for the voyage which Nunn had told me was to Batavia ..... [after the sinking of the ship and reaching Pom Pong island] ... Mrs. Nunn came ashore there and I noticed 'Myddy' standing in the water behind a rock nursing a tiny Chinese baby. The water was red with blood ... on Sunday, the day after the bombing ... I organized a watching party consisting of Nankivell, Burton, Pope, Inglis, Fordham and myself and we made our headquarters on the shore about half a mile from the main camp ... Sunday night passed w/out anything being sighted and on Monday it was decided to send off a sailing lifeboat with Morgan and Midford (PWD) and a crew of sailors to make contact with some bigger inhabited island ...

"(Wear); J. M. Fordham, Engineer Volunteers, Executive Engineer Marine PWD; arrived Colombo 10.3.42 on the “Chitral” (MVDB & CO 980/7)

Forrest, last seen on raft (ALFSEA); Donald Steward Forrest, British, son of G. S. Forrest – died on 14.2.42 around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); - it is possible there is some confusion between this person and the following Forrester,

- FORRESTER - Mrs. Marion Digby Forrester, aged 51 years was on the “Kuala”. Her son Daniel went missing around the sinking of the “Kuala”. She reached India (MVG)

- FORRESTER - Master Daniel Forrester went missing around sinking of “Kuala” (see above)

- FRENCH - W. R. French, Pensioner, Burmah (sic) (Inglis list at PRO); Mr. French (Eur) was seen on Sinkiep (CAS); also two references in (BPPL) “…French Ang/Ind Burma Padang w and daughter?... “and “…French W. Ang. Ind Killed Kuala w. (Burmese) at large Palembang…”; so it is highly probable that Mr. French’s wife was on the “Kuala” and survived to reach Palembang and Padang.

- FRENCH - Mrs. French, Burmese , reached Palembang ( by deduction); Ms. M. French was on the “Kuala” (ALFSEA); this is possibly the tall thin ‘Siamese’” woman who became Janet Lim’s friend in the book “Sold for Silver

A. Gentles was appointed a Nursing Sister in Malaya in December 1929 (SFPM 5.2.30), in 1931 she passed the ‘Oral Examination in Elementary Colloquial Malay ‘ in Penang (ST 15.8.31), and in 1933 went back to England on leave returning on the ‘Patroclus’ (ST 7.9.33). W. Haggart mentioned in the “Straits Times” in 1934 in a court case over an argument at the apartment block (Meyer Mansions) she lived in at the time with her husband who was described as British, this raises the possibility that it was Mrs. A. W. Haggart, the wife of Alfred William Haggart of A. Haggart & co, import/export of foodstuffs and a Changi internee was on the ship; – it is possible this is Mrs. HOGART (see below); also there was a Mrs. Fennie HEGGARTY, last address Raffles Hotel reported missing after the war by the Missing Persons Bureau of the Colonial office (STA 29.5.46).

Mr. J. Halliday, PWD (PWD list at PRO); when the “Kuala” was bombed, Jim Halliday, a Scotsman, was swept to an isolated rock far away from Pom Pong island. He had been swimming from the ship to Pom Pong Island but came across a lone woman struggling in the water. He swam to her and supported her and the tide-race carried them out to sea and the rock on which they were found two days later by a lifeboat from Pom Pong island sent out to find survivors(SJ); Lt. Harley, QAIMNS, to UK on “Antenor” (ALFSEA); possibly the same person as

Nursing Sister, QAIMNS, Alexandra Hospital, made it to Padang but captured by the Japanese and Interned (SIA); also Nurse Miss Hartley seen at Djambi Hospital (Hoskin); since none of the Hartley family were nurses this seems to be a spelling error of Miss Harley (above) name HARTLEY - Millicent “Milly” Myrtle Hartley, sister of Ralph Hartley, sister – law of Mrs. Kathleen Hartley and aunt of Kenneth Hartley, she drifted to an island away from Pom Pong Island after the sinking was rescued by Malay fisherman and was eventually interned in Muntok. She survived internment (nephew Kenneth Hartley “Recollections”); after the war Milly returned to Malaya, rebuilt her house which the Japanese had burned then sold her house and the rubber state she owned pre war, she married her deceased sister Lena’s husband (George Robert ‘Pop’ Hatton) and they retired to Perth, Western Australia.

HARTLEY - Mrs. Hartley, age 60 years – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); - Mrs. and Mrs. Hartley, Palm Estate, Kedah, left on “TP” (Ruperti); Mrs. Hartley, , Pelam Estate, Kedah – listed as on “TP” (JB); also Mrs. Hartley, Kedah, boarded the “TP” (ALFSEA); Mrs. Kathleen Hartley, wife of Mr. M. Hartley a coconut and palm oil planter (originally Pelam Estate in Kedah but later of Simpang Angat, about eleven miles from Telok Anson) had boarded the ship with her two sons, her mother (Evelyn Jones) and her extended family of Hartley’s, Hatton’s, Jones’ and Mather’s plus friends the Brett’s and de Broise), she survived the bombing at Pom Pong Island but lost her life on the “TP” (Recollections of Kenneth Hartley)

HATTON – Mrs. Lena Hatton, aged 62 years, British, - died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Lena Eleanor Hatton (nee Hartley) lived in Taiping, Perak with her husband George Robert Hatton who was an engineer on a tin mining dredge and was one of the large extended family of Hartley’s (her maiden name) and Jones who boarded the “Kuala” she was the sister-in-law of Mrs. Kathleen Hartley, the sister of Ralph Hartley and the mother of ‘Cissie’ Mather (below) who lost her life after boarding the “TP”; Lena had at some time previously to the sinking of the “Kuala” broken her hip and had difficulty walking so it would have been impossible for her to have swam away from the “Kuala” and was never seen again following the bombing and sinking of that ship (relative Kenneth Hartley “Recollections”)

HAWES – “…In the afternoon I saw to several patients, among them a nice newly-married woman, Mrs. Hawes, who had a hip wound and a severed sciatica nerve, which meant she would be permanently crippled… (Marjorie de Malmanche quoted in SDGB p. 41); Mrs. Hawes, Port Dickson - reached Sumatra (STF); Mrs. “…a nice newly married young woman… had a hip wound” (IWMMD); also “…Hawes AMR Tampin Linggee POW wife Jean Sumatra…” (BPPL); Mrs. Esme J. - HEMBROW – “… Hembrow A. E. East Smelting Kuala…” (BPPL); Mr. Hembrow, Eastern Smelting Co., Penang, believed drowned (ALFSEA); however it seems that Albert Edward Hembrow did in fact survive; he was from Taunton, Somerset, married to Gladys and aged 58 years at the time of the sinking; he had arrived in Malaya before 1932 and was Ore Room Superintendent, Smelting Works, Eastern Smelting Co. Ltd, Dato Kramat, Penang; he appears on the electoral roll of Western Australia in 1943 and it appears that his wife lived in that State for some time; he died in 1961 (research by Brian Christensen, Western Australia and the records of Jonathan Moffat)
- HENDERSON – Mr. D. W. H. Henderson, aged 50 years and Manager Chartered Bank, Kuala Lumpur,

  -Murray, QAIMNS, #208739, aged 26 years, daughter of C. L. and Ethel Hervey-Murray of Bournemouth, Hampshire died on 14.2.42 (CWGC); Nurse Agnes Hervey Murray is listed on the Kranji Memorial wall.
- HILL – Mrs. Hill, Singapore. “…believed lost…” (STF); also Mrs. Jack Hill, M.C.P., seen on “Kuala” (CAS); Ellen ‘Nellie’ Hill (nee Maley and the daughter of Mary Eleanor Morey and the step daughter of John Morey) was the wife of Jack Hill of the Singapore Fire Brigade (he was probably a Passive Defence Force Volunteer) and the sister of Jean Shaw with whom she had boarded the “SS. Kuala”, it seems that she lost her life in the sea after the ship was bombed and killed by either bombing or machine gunning of survivors in the sea (family records via great niece Annie Tate Harte); the official record is Mrs. Ellen Mary Fabian Hill, wife of Mr. J. R. Hill – she died around the sinking of the “Kuala” (CWGC); J. R. Hill was possibly the same person as Sub. Lt. J. R.
  Hill, RNVR and internee Changi and Sime Road.(MVDB); Jack Hill was certainly in Changi and then a POW on the Burma-Siam railway, he survived the War, they had no children (family records)
- HILL – “…HILL Maj Kuala Salmond…” (BPPL); Major Freddie G. Hill, 1st Bn. SSVF SRE (V), 44 years of age, Civil Engineer Municipality, was a late internee into Changi (MVDB); so presumably he arrived in Padang too late to be evacuated
- HIRST – Dorothy Hirst was a friend of Nora Kitching, who was also on the “Kuala” (see below)
  (TKD p.37); Ms. Hirst, Civil Nursing Service, on “Kuala” (ALFSEA); Dorothy Hirst, MAS. B. 1897

  Yorkshire – she died 14.2.42 (CWGC)
- HOGAN – Mrs. Hogan, son and niece were on the “Kuala” (Ruperti); so the son and niece should be recorded,
• HOGAN – son of Mrs. Hogan and
• HOGAN – niece of Mrs. Hogan; it is not clear whether the women in this group are the same person or persons as,
• HOGAN – Miss. Olive Hogan was on the “Kuala” (Rupert); Mrs. Olive Ethel Hogan, Nurse, Medical Auxiliary Service, Penang (from Australia) wife of Claude D. D. Hogan – she died in the sinking of the “TP”; also Mrs. Hogan, Penang, seen on “Kuala” (CAS); Claude Douglas Deveraux Hogan, aged 56 years, was a Barrister-in-Law, also a Captain, 2nd. Bn, SSVF, attached HQ Malay Command and who was a POW in Changi.(MVDB); “…Hogan C. D. P. Lawyer Penang POW…” (BPPL); ALFSEA list Mr. C.D. D. Hogan as having also been on the “Kuala” but if so he must have been captured in Padang by the Japanese
• HOGART – Mr. Hogart killed when “Kuala” sunk (Rupert)
• HOGART – Mrs. Hogart (Russian) killed when “Kuala” sunk (Rupert); this could also be Mrs. Haggart mentioned above who lost her life.
• HOGG – a young airman; arm blown off, reached Sumatra (IWMDM); however he had actually been on the “Tien Kwang” (book “Escape Impossible” by Stanley Saddington)
• HOLGate – Miss Fanny Holgate, Nursing Sister in Charge, Taiping General Hospital, aged 48 years, daughter of Tomas and Emily Holgate of Ewell, Surrey – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); also Miss F. F. Holgate (killed), G.H. Taiping,”… killed on ship…” (CAS); listed in the ‘Malayan Nurses’ Roll of Honour at Westminster Abbey (SFP 13.11.50)
• HOLLANDS – Miss B. Halland (sic), lady member of IMNS attached 27th G. Hospital “… blast of lungs. Condition serious. Taken from island by small craft bound for Java. Not heard of since…” (Evans); Mrs. Betty Hollands, Indian Medical Nursing Home. – listed as on “TP” (JPB); also Miss Betty Hollands, IANS., listed as on the “Kuala” (CAS); Sister (Miss) Beatrice Helena Hollands, 27 years, of Indian nationality, 17 Combined general Hospital, Singapore, niece of Major H. C. Phillips of East Ewell, Surrey – she died 16.2.42 (CWGC) – so it is unclear whether she died on Pompong Island or on the “TP” or even in Sumatra and this is compounded by “… Miss Betty Hollands, IMC, and 4 IMS girls of nursing home Johore, left on “TP”…” (Rupert)
• HOLLANDS – Miss Joyce Hollands, IANS., listed as on “Kuala” (CAS)
• HOLGate – Miss Bunny Holgate, Malayan Nursing Service, killed when “Kuala” sunk (Rupert)
• HOMER – in the “Straits Times” of November 1940 there is mention of a Miss K. Homer, 11 Barker Road; Singapore (Strait Times); Miss Kita Homer, “… seen in water…” (CAS); Miss Homer (Irish), 1st wife of Tan Siew Sin of Pasir Panjang left on Sengket (sic) Island (Rupert); also recorded is Miss Homer (MAS) as having given tireless work at a camp at Dabo (G. J. O’Grady Report No. 4, Malay Research Bureau); Miss Kathleen Homer, aged 42 years, English, of 11 Barker Road, Singapore is listed as interned in the British Women’s Camp, Padang and moving to the Mission Complex on 24.6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bos)
• HONEYWELL – Dr. Honeywell, Head of King’s School, (Ayr Molek - sic) listed as on the “Kuala” (CAS); also D. W. Honeywell, Kings School, Singapore (Inglis list at PRO); also Dr. D. Honeywell, Principal, Kings School, 1 Goodwood Hill, Singapore, evacuated via Padang 1.3.42 by “Hobart” to Colombo (MVG newsletter); “… Honeywell D. W. Kings School Singapore Kuala…” (BPPL)
• HORSLEY – whilst at Pom Pond Island ’Jack’ Horsley bravely swam out to sea to retrieve one of the lifeboats and swam back with it and the sole occupant, an Indian soldier who had taken it out fatally deciding it was his time to die (SJ); Captain John Alan Talbot Horsley, aged 43 years, from Queensland, Australia. Senior Exec. Engineer PWD, Kuala Kangsar , Perak, arrived Colombo 10.3.42 on “Chitral” and reached India(MVG and MVDB)); also on PWD list at PRO
• HOSEY – Tempy. Lt. (E) Launcelot Langan Hosey, RNR – is officially recorded as having died 14.2.42 and was an officer on “HMS. Kuala” (Liverpool Naval Memorial and CWGC); it is possible that Lt. Hosey was the person referred to as being on a raft with 24 people from which a ‘Naval reservist’ [this could have been Supply Assistant Frederick Wright who later died at Skapai on an island called Pulu Temiang] (CSL) had swum to an island, this man had stated he could”…remember nothing about them except that there was a Lieut, H...(name unknown) Naval Reserve among them…” (G. J. O’Grady, report No.4, Malay Research Bureau) – this person might also have been Lt. Hull (below) who was also MRNVR; however there is another report, this time by Dr Chen Su Lan who was a person on a raft which was a person referred to as the “Captain” who told CSL that the raft had “… capsized several times with the result some original occupants were thrown into the sea and some of the present occupants were later comers … “… at the time CSL joined the raft there were six people on board, of whom three subsequently died The six were the “Captain” a European member of the PWD staff (almost certainly Mr. G. J. O’Grady a long serving PWD engineer) who swam away before sunset to a beach 1,000 feet away because he said the raft was sinking; a European woman about 35 years of age (who swam away with O’Grady at sunset and was never seen again); a young man named “Jock” who was very badly injured in the lungs by bomb blast (almost certainly Supply Assistant Frederick Wood Wright); two young girls both “staff nurses of the Indian medical Service having come to Malaya with the Indian troops” named by CSL as Lena Hosie (probably Hussy/Hessy) and Phylliss Fonceda (probably Fonseka or Fonseca); and “an old tall big European man – who appeared to have been taken from his sick bed in Singapore [this is quite relevant since there were only two Naval Volunteer Reserve lieutenants on the “Kuala” with surnames beginning with “H” and Lt. Hosey had been in Hospital in Singapore around the 11th/12th February after being knocked unconscious in a bombing raid on the City]. The people remaining on the raft that evening, in the darkness, reached a small rocky islet about 50 feet in diameter. On that isle “while someone held the raft by a rope the others helped the elderly man to climb a steep ridge. So heavy and helpless was he that he slipped and dropped into a black hole from which it was impossible to extricate him in our state of exhaustion. He must have drowned in the rising tide [i.e. on the rocky islet on the night of the 14th February] (CSL); Launcelot Hosey had been a Marine Engineer in Penang prior to the War and his family (he was married with seven children) remained in Singapore during the war; their recollection is that on around 11-12 February he was knocked unconscious during the bombing of the Catholic convent whilst there with one of his sons, he was taken to an unnamed Hospital and the family did not hear anything of him after that; although there is a family story that his deckchair on the “Kuala” was strafed by Japanese planes moments after taking cover; the view of his family is that, because he always said he would stay and fight, he had died perhaps in Hospital or some other event in Singapore; it therefore remains unclear to the family whether, despite being an officer on the “Kuala”, Lt. Hosey was actually on board or in hospital, where he might have died, when the ship sailed from Singapore (grandson, Mr. David Hosie [spelling of family name has changed since the war]); a reference to the family is found in the newspaper archives when in 1931 Mrs. L. L. Hosey and two infants arrived in Singapore from Penang on the “Kedah” (SFPMA 10.12.31)

- HOSIE – Nurse Lena HOSIE was recorded by Dr. Chen Su land as being a survivor from the “Kuala” on a raft he swam to. There were six people on the raft including O’Grady (PWD) and two young nurses from the Indian Medical Service who had come to Malaya with the Indian troops. One was Lena HOSIE (see also HUSSEY/HESSY) and the other was Phyllis FONSEDA (FONSEKA/FONSECA?). These nurses were with Dr. Chen Su Lan when they were all rescued by a Malay fisherman and taken to the village of Skapai on the island of Pulau Temiang. Both nurses were wounded but survived at least to Pulau Temiang – Nurse FONSEDA/FONSEKA also reached Singkep and was interned by the Japanese (see her story above), and it appears she managed to return to Singapore in 1942 but “…could not get home…” (see story of FONCEDA? FONSEK) (CSL); however there is a CWGC record of the death of Sister Norah Constance St. John HUSSEY, Auxiliary Nursing Service India as having lost her life on 14.2.42 so there is a mystery as to whether Sister Lena Hosie and Sister HUSSEY are the same person and Lena HOSIE never made it to safety perhaps after reaching Pulau Temiang or Senejang?

- HOUSTON – Mr. Houston, Chartered Bank on “Kuala” (ALFSEA); there is mention of a Mr. J. G. Houston playing tennis in the “Straits Times” before the war

- HOWE – Mrs. Howe, from Australia, cake shop owner, Singapore – possibly got on “TP” (MVG); in 1915 there is mention of a Mrs. (Robin?) Howe giving cake making classes at the YWCA in Singapore (Straits Times); also as an example used in a book to describe the standard of living in pre-War Singapore “…In the European section of the city there was a cake-shop and café in Battery Road, known as “GH’s” after its owner, an Australian called Mrs. Howe. At marbled – topped tables the clientele would recklessly ignore their waistlines in exchange for the joy of Mrs. Howe’s gateaux and home-made ice creams…” (WBTW)

- HSU – “…HSU CHENG HSIN LEFT KUALA…” (BPPL) which is interesting that he is noted since the BPPL list records almost exclusively European men so the inclusion of this man indicates he was very well know by and intermingled with European business men of the time; he was one of the Bank of China employees in the group of well-connected Chinese families which left Singapore together on the “Kuala” and “Tien Kwang”; Dr Chen Su Lan met him on the “Kuala” and records that he returned to Singapore in approx. June 1942 (CSL); After the sinking he made his way to Sydney via Malaya, Thailand, Indo - China, Chunking, India to become son-in-law of Parkane Huang the manager of the Singapore branch before evacuating to Sydney… (email from Chen family 2012); in company with CHEN Chi Nan, LIM Chin Hiong and a Miss HSU (no relation) he was also given refuge in Pulau Manis by the very kind and generous TAN Hoan Khim family (CHEN Chi Nan); he is also recorded elsewhere as SU C. H.
• HSU – there was a Miss HSU who was a schoolteacher and who reached the small island of Pulau Manis and given refuge by the very kind and generous TAN Hoan Khim in company with other shipwrecked survivors HSU Cheng Hsun (above and no relation), LIM Chin Hiong and CNEN Chi Nan (source Chen family August 2012); also Miss Hsu is mentioned in Dr Chen Su Lan’s book as being on a lifeboat with 35 passengers which, after several days at sea and on an uninhabited island made their way on a Chinese junk to Redjai and hence to Senejang (CSL ref Mrs. Grace Low story); this would appear to be the same person as Miss HU (below)

• HU – Miss Hu. Teacher at Chong Hock School where Mrs. Low was head. A few months later she returned to Singapore with the Low family (NIL); see also Miss Hsu (above)

• HUDSON – seaman on “Kuala” (I. A. Inglis list PRO)

• HULF – Sister (Mrs.) “escaped” (STF); Miss H. Hulf, QAIMNSR, 1st Malayan General, “…now stationed Dehli…” (Evans); Sister (Miss) M.E. Hulf, Q.A. reached Bombay and gave evidence to 1943 inquiry (CAS)

• HULL – Lt. Edward William Hull, husband of Mrs. E. C. Hull, c/o YMCA, Fort Canning, Singapore believed killed following the bombing of the “Kuala” in 13/14 February 1942 (PODC); however his death is also attributed to the sinking of the “Giang Bee”; Sub Lt Edward William Hull, MRNVR, died at sea sinking of “Giang Bee” on 13.2.42 (MVDB); also Lt. Edward William Hull, aged 52 years, husband of Emily Hull of Weston – Super Mare died between 13.2.42-14.2.42 (CWGC) it is possible that Lt. Hull was the person referred to as being on a raft which had originally had 24 people from which a Naval reservist [this could be Supply Assistant Wright who later died on Pulau Temiang] had swum to an island, this man had stated he could “…remember nothing about them except that there was a Lieut, H….(name unknown) Naval Reserve among them…” (G. J. O’Grady, report No.4, Malayan Research Bureau) – this person might also have been Lt. Hosey (above) who was also MRNVR; however there is another report, this time by Dr Chen Su Lan who reached a raft on which was a person referred to as the “Captain” who told CSL that the raft had “…capsized several times with the result some original occupants were thrown into the sea and some of the present occupants were later comers… “, at the time CSL joined the raft there were six people on board, of whom three subsequently died The six were the “Captain” a European member of the PWD staff (almost certainly Mr. G. J. O’Grady a long serving PWD engineer) who swam away before sunset to a beach 1,000 feet away because he said the raft was sinking; a European woman about 35 years of age (who swam away with O’Grady at sunset and was never seen again); a young man named “Jock” who was very badly injured in the lungs by bomb blast (almost certainly Supply Assistant Frederick Wood Wright); two young girls both “staff nurses of the Indian medical Service having come to Malaya with the Indian troops” named by CSL as Lena Hosie (probably Hussy/Hessy) and Phyllis Fonceda (probably Foneska or Fonseka); and “an old tall big European man – who appeared to have been taken from his sick bed in Singapore. The people remaining on the raft that evening, in the darkness, reached a small rocky islet about 50 feet in diameter. On that isle “while someone held the raft by a rope the others helped the elderly man to climb a steep ridge. So heavy and helpless was he that he slipped and dropped into a black hole from which it was impossible to extricate him in our state of exhaustion. He must have drowned in the rising tide [i.e. on the rocky islet on the night of the 14th February] (CSL);

• HURST – Miss. “…believed lost…” (STF); also Sister (Miss) D. Hurst G.H. (CAS); also Miss D. Hurst, G.H., seen on “Kuala” (CAS) almost certainly Dorothy HIRST mentioned above.

• HUSBAND – Thomas Gibson Husband, BSc. aged 52 years, Deputy General Surveyor PWD. Captain Volunteers; he and Mr. Horsley bravely rowed out from shore to save people struggling in the water (P. 34 SDGB account by Arthur Ross, PWD He reached Padang and then Bombay (MVG); also on PWD list at PRO

• HUSSEY / HESSY / HOSIE – Sister N.C. St. Hussey, Indian Military Nursing Service lost her life during the war (QH); she is very likely to have been on the “Kuala” given the next record; Miss Hessy is recorded as being on the “Kuala” (Ruperti); also the detailed account by Dr. Chen Su Lan of his ordeal on a raft after the sinking where also amongst the six on the raft were two young girls both “Staff nurses of the Indian Medical Service having come to Malaya with the Indian troops” named by CSL as Lena HOSIE and Phyllis FONSEDA. Both survived the days on the raft and reaching a small mangrove beach where they were later rescued by a Malay fisherman and taken to his village of Skapai on Pulau Temiang. Nurse Fonceda/Fonseka definitely survived to later be interned in Senejang and returned to Singapore in 1942. What happened to ‘Lena Hosie’ is not recorded but it is very likely that she is the same person as Sister Hussey; there is an official record of “Sister Norah Constance St. John Hussey, Z/24815, Auxiliary Nursing Service India, died 14.2.42 (CWGC and Singapore Memorial Column 350)
HUTTON - Lt. Col. Arthur James Scott Hutton, aged 51 years, Actg. Govt Architect PWD, SS. – reached Padang, Colombo then India (MVG); also on PWD list at PRO; in Nairobi (ALFSEA); arrived Colombo on 10.3.42 on “Chitral” (MVDB & Co 980/7); by 11.3.42 Arthur James Scott Hutton had reached India and was living at the Taj Mahal Hotel, Bombay (his letter to his wife – Deb Ford, Queensland, Australia); A. J. S. ‘Jim’ Hutton, had been a Captain in the Royal Engineers during the First World War and at the time of the Japanese invasion of Malaya was Chief Architect, PWD., Singapore. He was then appointed Lt. HYDE - Kathleen Fay Moslyn, b. 1912 – died on “TP” (C2411); “…Fay Hyde (Richard Hoop’s sister) went on the “TP”…” (IWML); there was an unofficial (Vatican) and obviously incorrect report that Mrs. Fay Hyde had been interned; Mrs. Kathleen Fay Mostyn Hyde, Nurse VAD, Singapore, aged 30 years, wife of Anthony Hyde of Bellamy road, Kuala Lumpur. Daughter of Dr. A. L. and Mrs. Hoops, Blackheath, London – she died in the sinking of the “TP” (CWGC)

HYRE – Miss Hyre reached Padang (ALFSEA); this is in fact Amelia “Billie” Whybro who was interned at Padang and Bankinang – it is her maiden name.

I – Nurse Theresa (the compilers of the so called Japanese broadcast list seem unclear on the surname and have just put in the letter “I”) – listed as on the “TP” (JPB);

INGHAM – a Ms. Ingham is mentioned as a War Nurse in Singapore in 1940 (Strait Times); Miss A. A. Ingham, T. A. N. INGLEIS – Colin William Anderson Inglis, Assistant Govt. Architect PWD Johore, but based in Singapore, living Mt. Vernon. Reached Padang and then India - published diary in 1945 (MVG); also on PWD list at PRO; Lt. T. Jacques, did work and live on Malang Estate as far back as 1926 and their daughter Diana married Mr. C. U. Stafford in 1937 bringing together two of Taiping’s oldest European families – see Stafford below

JAMBU – Mrs. Jambu, civilian – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); also Mrs. A. Superintendent of Surveys, Singapore in 1931 when Mrs. Jambu’s daughter is referred to as ‘Katie’ (ST 15.8.31).

JANSON – Mrs. Janson and two children, listed as on “TP” (JPB); there is no other information on the identity of this woman and her children but if the surname spelling is correct it is possible that she could be either one of the following, or related to one of the men mentioned in pre War newspaper reports – Mrs. A M. Janson who arrived in Singapore on board the “Op ten Noort”

JAKE – Mrs. Jake, husband was planter, Perak. – listed as on “TP” (JPB) - this is very possibly a misspelling of the name “Jago” or “Jago” or “Jacques” (above)

JEAVONS – Mrs. Kathleen “Peggy” Jeavons. Noted as being on Pom Pong Island. Reached Australia, Capt David Nelson records as on “Aorangi”, wife of Mr. A. C. Jeavons (MVG); Mr. A. C. Jeavons, Customs, was an internee in Changi (MRB)

JENKINS – Dora Jenkins. (British) b. 1901. – died around sinking of “Kuala” (C2530); Mrs. Dora Jenkins, aged 41 years, wife of William Edward Jenkins, Gaol House, Changi. – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); however, there is a contradictory record “…Mrs. Jenkins left on “TP”” (Ruperti); Mrs. Dora Jenkins (nee Cantrell) had married William Jenkins when he was a Prison Warder in Johore (JM); some further background to the fateful departure on the “Kuala” is given in Thomas Kitching’s diary /book “Life and Death in Changi” when on 14 April 1942 he records “… While waiting for a haircut, I chat to Jenkins an ex warder. He and his wife were going to catch a boat on January 30th (Joan’s) when planes came overhead. They took cover at Calbeck’s, but were hit. He got a nasty one in the leg, his wife on her arm and they were taken to the General Hospital. She got away later. Their baggage was all on the first ship….“and then in the diary Thomas Kitching records on 1st September 1942 “… W.E. Jenkins has died , aged 48 …” - it is possible that William had by then suspected that his wife might have died. The date for W.E. Jenkins death is given as 31 August 1942 in the diary/book by T.P.M. Lewis (“Changi The Lost Years, A Malayan War Diary”): Interestingly (and patently incorrectly) the CWGC has William dying in Changi on 13 8 43??

Joaquim(n), civilian - died in sinking of “TP” (CWGC); it appears that her name was either Hilda Marie Joaquim or Marie Anna Joaquim (the latter in the Colonial register of Deaths); her husband was JOAQUIM B.J.P. [Basil John Parsick], b.1890. Moved to Singapore 1913. Barrister & Solicitor: Partner, Pooley & Co., 68 Klyne St, Kuala Lumpur. In 1915 Pte 1616 A Company MSVR. Wife Hilda Marie [Marie Anna? JOHNSTON/JOHNSON – Mr. G. A. Johnston, aged 39 years of age, employed by the Chartered Bank, was interned in Bankinang Men’s Camp, Sumatra (Mr. H. van den Bos); which is somewhat confirmed by ”… JOHNSTON G A CHRT. BK KUALA NEI? …” (BPPL); a post war record indicates that he had been on the “Kuala” and states”. …Mr. Johnson, banker, to UK on “Antenor””. (ALFSEA)

- JOHNSON – Capt. Johnson, Retd., on “Kuala” (ALFSEA)
- JOHNSTON – Mr. G. A. Johnston, to UK on “Antenor” (ALFSEA)
- JONES – Dr. Chen Su Lan in his book recorded that at Pulau Temiang other people including a Mrs. J. who had been on the “Kuala” were subsequently rescued by villagers and brought to the island [ by elimination this would appear to be Mrs. Jones] (CSL); Mrs. Evelyn Amanda Jones, mother of Mrs. J. Hartley and family mentioned above, had been collected by her grandsons from their home at Utan Melintang and driven to Tapah to join up with the wider family group before heading for Kuala Lumpur by road, at Pom Pong island she boarded one of the lifeboats with Kathleen Hartley and her grandsons but then with her daughter abandoned that life boat because it could not make headway away from the burning, sinking ship. Because of the strong currents she drifted apart from her daughter and grandsons and never made it to Pom Pong island but was instead later picked up by local fishermen with Milly Hartley and taken to an inhabited island off Sumatra; she was interned (possibly initially at Muntok but definitely in Padang and then Bankinang) and on 1.1.44, aged in her mid seventies, died in Bankinang camp of dysentery and malnutrition another reference suggests about four to six months before the end of the war (grandson Kenneth Hartley’s “recollections”);
- JONES – an Australian nursing Sister who” … swam back into the sea to rescue people who were either wounded or in difficulty. When she was too exhausted to swim anymore, she went out in a boat to help. She was extremely brave, as bombs were dropping all the time and the underwater blast was terrifying … “ (IWMDM); also Miss A. Jones, J.B. Hospital (Inglis list at PRO); also Sister Ada Jones, Australian and by her account the only surviving Australian, who escaped to Western Australia (news paper cutting held by Deb Ford, Queensland); also Miss A. Jones. – died on “TP” (CWGC); also listed as Mrs. Phyllis Jones, aged 30-35 years, on the “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala “ and “TP” at PRO); Mrs. Phyllis Jones, was the wife of Norman Jones, Manager of Borneo Motors in Kuala Lumpur, and the sister-in-law of Mrs. Kathleen Hartley, she survived the sinking of the “Kuala” and were in the Hartley/Jones family group on Pom Pong Island, then Phyllis with her daughter Evelyn boarded the “TP” (Nephew Kenneth Hartley) and her daughter,
- JONES - child. – listed as on “TP” (JPB); Jones aged 4 years – died on 14.2 42 on “Kuala” (CWGC); however it seems clear that this is Evelyn Jones aged 4 years and the daughter of Mrs. Phyllis Jones above who boarded the “TP” with her mother (nephew Kenneth Hartley); there is a record at the CWGC of the next person who could be a confusion between Evelyn and her grandmother Evelyn Amanda Jones (above)?
- JONES – E. A. civilian, son (sic) of N. R. Jones and P. Jones – died on “TP” (CWGC) this is an error on the part of the CWGC since Phyllis and Norman Jones had only one child, a daughter as listed above (nephew Kenneth Hartley)
- JONES – Miss Jones, Singapore noted as being on the “Kuala” – fate unknown (STF); also Miss K. Jones J.B. (CAS); also ” ... Miss Jones (Perak) Eur seen at Singkep ... “ (CAS); and a report that “... Norah Jones Eurasian seen at Djambi Hospital ... “ suggesting she might have been a nurse ( Hoskin): - not a member of the Hartley/Jones family group
- JONES – Ms. T. Jones (British). b.1918. – died around sinking of “Kuala” (C2603); probably the same person as Mrs. Jones, civilian, age 24 years – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC) – not a member of the Hartley/Jones family group

Kelly seen on Pom Pong Island, England (CAS); Captain Sid N. Kelly, 1st Bn SSVF, Singapore Fortress RE (V), #13195, Assistant Water Engineer (Supply) Singapore Municipality. Reached Padang (MVDB)

Mrs. Leonora King, the wife of the Rev Colin King; she was clearly a very intelligent woman and a strong, confident personality who made an impact on the fledgling Malayan broadcasting system whilst in her early/mid twenties; according to UK marriage records they were married in 1928 in the town where she lived with her parents (Chesterfield, Derbyshire) and must have been 18 years of age; they appear to have arrived in Malay in 1930 when Rev. King was appointed Assistant Master in the Education Department, SS & FMS; they lived in Penang from until possibly the Japanese invasion, during which time the Rev. King was the Senior European Master at the Penang Free School and officiated at St George’s Church, Penang; they were both “… leading personalities …” in the Penang Wireless Society when the whole radio broadcasting system appears to have been heavily supported by volunteers; and both were in charge of programmes being broadcast; an insight into the intellect and drive of Mrs. King is in the following newspaper article “… Talented and equally outspoken Mrs. Colin King is also well known in Penang. She was the first woman announcer in Malaya and has acted regularly as announcer from Station ZHJ. Her recent “Plea for Pornography” made at the Penang Rotary Club, gained wide publicity. She is a keen cinema critic from the ‘academic’ angle, and at one time her talks on the cinema were popular features of broad casts from Station SHJ. Both she and her husband are extremely well read and both have given reviews of books over the radio…” “(Strait Times’ 8 January 1939); after the sinking of the “Kuala” she boarded the “Tandjong Pinang “and lost her life in that sinking; Mrs. Colin King– boarded “TP” (STF); wife of Rev. Colin King, Penang, listed as on “TP” (JB and Ruperti); her husband was clearly aware of her loss on the “TP” either whilst he was interned in Changi and Sime Road camps, or very soon after the War, since in 1946 Rev Colin King made the following statement in a letter whilst pleading for leniency for the war criminals ‘…if I am to think of the dead, I have my own poignant memory of one drowned or burned, with no attempt at succor, in the hold of the ‘Tanjong Pinang’…” (letter to “Straits Times” on 19.9.46 on sentences passed by the War Crimes Court on five senior Japanese staff at Changi Gaol and Sime Road Camp); Mrs. Leonora King, age 32 years, Medical Auxiliary Service (Malaya), daughter of J. G. C. and F. T. Geijp, 43 Walton Drive, Chesterfield, Derbyshire and wife of Rev. Colin King – died on “TP” (CWGC); Rev. Colin King, Educ. Penang, was listed as an internee in Changi in 1944 (MRB); after the War he was briefly headmaster of Victoria School, Singapore but he was invalided out of Government service in 1946, in 1948 he married Miss Nellie Chen, daughter of Dr Chen Ah Poh of Singapore and they lived in England; the “Straits Times” reported on 27.10.53 that he had died at Seven Kings, Essex, England.

- KING – seaman on “Kuala” (I. A. Inglis list PRO)
- KITCHEN – Mrs. Kitchen, Singapore – “…boarded “TP”… “ (STF); presumably the same person as,
- KITCHING – Mrs. Nora Kitching, age 45 years, Nurse, wife of Thomas Kitching (who died in Changi) – died around sinking of “Kuala”(CWGC) but this is almost certainly incorrect; Mrs. Kitching was also a Nurse and her story is covered in Thomas Kitching’s diary whilst he was interned in Changi (TKD); Mrs. Kitching is recorded as having been on the “Kuala” (list of people believed to have been on the “Kuala” at PRO); however – if Oswald Gilmour is correct in ‘STF’, Mrs. Kitching actually embarked on the “TP”; this is also corroborated in a passenger list at the PRO which states Mrs. I. Kitching, wife of T. Kitching, Survey Dept (left Pom Pong on SS Tanjong Pinang); it is further confirmed in the diary of Mr. A. Wear, PWD who states "...About 3 a.m. the steamer [the “Tandjong Pinang] got away having left us a chart, some medical supplies and morphia (Mrs. Tommy Kitching was amongst those who went) “ (Wear).
- KLASSEN – Miss Hilda Klassen, General Hospital, Singapore – listed as on “TP” (JPB and Ruperti); also Sister (Miss) Klassen, S/N/, N.K. seen on Pom Pong Island (CAS); Nursing Sister H. Klassen, British, - died on 17.2.42 in sinking of “TP” (CWGC); Miss H.B. Klassen must have worked at the General Hospital, Singapore because in the “Straits Times” in 1934 she was part of the winning team in the 200 yards relay at the Third Annual sports and gymkhana of the Nurses Sports Club, General Hospital (ST. 23.2.34)
- KLEINMAN – Mr. D. H. Kleiman (sic) (died of injuries) tennis player (CAS); also “… Kleimann D. H. died? Bvd? Daboh Salmond...” (BPPL); also Kleinman – believed to have died in Dabok (sic means the town of Dabo on Singkep island) hospital (list of passengers known to have left on “Kuala” prepared by T. P. Sundaran, Malayan Representative in India, Bombay, 16.10.45); it appears he had a son because he is mentioned in the escape story of a Mr. Wedgwood, of Mansfield & Co wherein he records on 11.2.42 “… I then ran into an old friend, Kleinman, with whom I used to play tennis in the old days, who appeared to be in a rather a state of nerves and was anxious to get away from Singapore. I offered to take him along to the Supreme Court where permits were being issued and then drove him to his house to pick up his son and his car. This was along Balestier and Thompson road and was far too near the front line for my liking -.....” – does this mean that David Kleinman’s son was also on the “Kuala” the identity of his son is unknown (researcher’s note); David Kleinman first appears in Singapore newspapers as a tennis player in 1909 and became a professional tennis player in 1919 following which he appears in local papers in articles about tennis almost every day until the mid 1930s, he was clearly one of the most successful tennis players Singapore has ever produced, playing in top level tournaments in the UK, Europe and India, he had started a sports business by 125 – the Queens Athletic Stores in Prince Road (SFPMA 15.4.25) and by 1934 was living in Meyer Road and still managing the ‘Queens Sports Store’. Unusually, in view of the hundreds of newspaper articles mentioning him, there is no apparent report of his wedding, and he starts to be mentioned as “Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kleinman “in 1935. There is a photo of him in the Straits Times on 3.4.37. In the Straits Times on 20.11.39 there is a death notice for his wife, “…Bertha Kleinman in her 42 year…” and mentioning that she had been in Singapore for 10 years; also David Henry “Jimmy” Kleinman, Managing Director, Queen’s Ltd., Singapore (formerly an Assistant with John Little & Co.) whose wife may have been Emily Kleinman. Aged 52 years at the time of the evacuation. He had been a champion tennis player and Hon. Sec. of the Malayan Tennis Assn. Lived at 3 Prince Street, Singapore. He appears to have also left Singapore at the same time as his stenographer, Miss Esther Brisk, who recorded that he was badly injured in the bombing at Pom Pong Island – one of his arms was blown off. He died of wounds at Dabo on 21 2 42.Recorded at Kranji cemetery. (Moffatt)
- KNIGHT – “…Lt. Knight RNR who was on ‘SS. Kuala’ and on the island. This officer is said to have been badly shaken and his memory seems hazy. He does seem fairly clear that there was a Brigadier [this is a reference to Brigadier Fawcett] on the island and that he had lost two fingers…”

• LEE – Mr. D.C. Lee, Singapore (Inglis list PRO); however this is specifically contradicted (by Wang) who recorded that Mr. D.C. Lee went on the “Chin Kwang” (Tien Kwang”) with him,

• LEE – Mrs. D. C. Lee, Singapore (Inglis list at PRO); “all the women and children …in the group with Wang Hau-nan went on the “Kuala” (Wang) meaning Mrs. D. C. Lee and her children went on the “Kuala”; then “…I heard that Mrs. D. C. Lee … had been rescued by lifeboat...in the morning of the 17th …I was told that the two little daughters of Mr. D. C. Lee were missing; the “…about the 20th all the survivors on Pompom island including Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lee …were carried to a small seaport on the coast of Sumatra called Intergris (sic) by one small motor boat and four junks…”; “…I was informed that Mr. D. C. Lee with his wife had all gone back to Singapore…” (Wang); sadly by deduction it should be recorded that,

• LEE – two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lee died in the sinking of the “Kuala” (Wang)

• LEE – Mrs. J. Lee was on the “Kuala” (ALFSEA)” (Wang)

See also the entry for the Sleigh girls below (information provided by sisters of the three Sleigh girls - Mrs. Joyce Keys and her sister Violet 2011).

• LEE SENG TEE – Lee Seng Tee, Singapore (Inglis list at PRO); contrary to this incorrect record Lee Seng Tee actually was on the “Tien Kwang” with the other half (mainly men) of the group of important Chinese families who were escaping together; “…Mr. Lee Kwan Chian’s son and I together with some Bank’s employees went on board of a converted gunboat “Chin Kwan”…” (Wang letter); Mr. Lee Seng Tee, born 1923, the second son of Mr. Lee Kong Chian and the grandson of Tan Kah Kee, survived the sinking of the “Tien Kwang” and appears to have been swept away by currents but managed to return to Singapore where he spent the remainder of the war years; these days he is a Director of the Lee Group, one of the wealthiest men in Singapore through interests in Banking, investments, rubber and pineapple and a renowned international philanthropist to education and the arts.

LEEFE – Miss V. M. Leefe was either a Civilian or Colonial Nursing Service nurse (QH); Miss Violet Marie Leefe, civilian, aged 26 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Leefe of New Milton, Hampshire – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC)

POW…” (BPPL); lawyer Charles Samuel (also a passenger on the ship) had met up with the Leggatts on Xmas Eve 1941 as Charles and his wife Violet were evacuating form Penang and staying in Kuala Lumpur’ … We had a very pleasant break in the monotony on Xmas night when we had our Xmas dinner with the Leggatts. They lived about seven miles outside KL on a rubber estate. The turkey and sausages and plum pudding tasted very good…” (Charles Samuel diary)

LEICESTER –Mrs. Leicester died on Pom Pong island as a result of injuries (Ruperti); May Valentine Leicester, civilian – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Mrs. May Valentine Leicester (nee Innes), wife of H (Henry) R. Leicester, c/o SHB. Auxiliary Police Mess, Singapore (PODC)

LEVER – Ms. M. Lever, Nursing Sister, on Pom Pong Island on 14.2.42, in India (ALFSEA)

LEWIS – Miss Doreen Lewis, aged 28 years of age and described as Indo-Eng, of 27 Indian General Hospital, Gillman Barracks, Singapore was listed as an internee in the British Women’s Camp, Padang and moving to the Mission Complex on 24.6.43 (Mr. H. van den Bios); also listed as being on the “Kuala” was Ms. D. E. Lewis, IMNS, to India on Felix Roussel on 20.9.45 (ALFSEA)

LIEN – Miss Lien on “Kuala” (Ruperti)

Li – Mr. Li , husband of Mrs. Ruth Li (see below)

LI – Mrs. Ruth Li of Singapore and her young children, Patsy Li and Lottie Li, were on the “Kuala” (ACOM); she jumped from the “Kuala” with both daughters but lost hold of Patsy almost immediately. Mrs. Li and Lottie floated for some hours at sea but as they were being brought aboard a lifeboat which found them the unconscious Lottie slipped from her grip and disappeared (EFSGR)

Li – Patsy Li, six years of age, the daughter of Ruth Li, went missing in the sinking of the “Kuala” after her mother tied her to some wreckage as they were swimming to shore. There have been a number of published accounts of the “miracle” story of a young girl who turned up several years later on Guadalcanal during the fighting between Japanese and US troops. In what was a remarkable coincidence, US Army Chaplain Father Gehring had named this young girl “Patsy Li”, the identical name as Mrs. Ruth Li’s missing daughter (“A Child of Miracles” ACOM). After the war, in 1947, this young girl was found in an orphanage and was apparently identified by Mrs. Li as her missing daughter and taken back to Singapore. This Patsy Li now lives in the USA. However, from other sources, it now appears that this identification was mistaken and that the young girl “Patsy Li” found in Guadalcanal was not the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Li. Sadly, it must therefore be recorded that Ruth Li’s daughters, Patsy Li together with her younger sister Lottie, both died following the sinking of the “Kuala”

LI - Lottie Li, a child of less than six years of age , daughter of Mrs. Ruth Li (above and from ACOM); tragically, Lottie drifted at sea for several hours in the arms of her mother but, lost consciousness and was lost when they were being brought aboard an lifeboat (EFSGR)

LIDDLELOW (?) – see LYDALL?

Family of Mr. Johnny Lim;

LIM – “…Johnny Lim of Ho Kong Co., boarded the “Chin Kwan” (“Tien Kwang”)… in the morning of the 17th…” I was told that the whole family of Mr. Jonny Lim were missing…”(Wang letter); “…Mr. Johnny Lim, Ho Hong Bank and factory, and his six year old daughter, left for Sumatra and remained at Perigi…” (Ruperti); Lim Seow Chuan and baby, Singapore (Inglis list at PRO); Mr. Lim Seow Chuan (aka Johnny Lim aged, 32 years, whose father was the owner of the Ho Hong Company, survived with his six year old daughter Serene Lim, but tragically his wife, son and older daughter lost their lives. He managed to return to Singapore and remake his life with his daughter (grandson Kevin Lee),…scion of Ho Hong Co. family. Neighbor of ours in Pasir Pajang. He and daughter Serene lived. She migrated to Canada with husband Lee Mau Seng …” (email from Chen Chi Nan, survivor 2012); he was a sportsman pre and post war in badminton and boxing whilst also achieving high office as Vice President of the Council of federation of Industrialists and Trades (SFP 3.6.48) and Managing Director of Ho Hong Oil Mills Johnny’s account is LIM – Mrs. Rachael Lim (nee Rachael Y. H. Wong), wife of Mr. Johnny Lim (above) lost her life in the sinking of the “Kuala”. She was a ballet dancer prior to the war and had a high social profile being reported and photographed regularly attending charity balls, weddings and parties (SFPMA on 17.3.35, 22.11.35 29.5.36; ST 1.7.370). As she was entering the sea from the “Kuala” a man she knew asked her to hand him one of her three children – she handed him the youngest one, Serene. Rachael then jumped into the sea with Sonny and Anita and apparently tied then selves together with some floating object. She was pregnant at the time and, despite being a good swimmer, she was swept by the strong currents out to sea with her two children. After the war Johnny Lim returned to Pom Pong Island and neighboring islands but never found any information on Rachael and the two children (grandson Kevin Lee).

LIM – Master Sonny Lim, aged about nine years of age, son of Mr. Johnny Lim and Mrs. Rachael Lim (above) lost his life in the sinking of the “Kuala” (nephew Kevin Lee).

LIM – Miss Anita Lim, aged about eight years of age, daughter of Mr. Johnny Lim and Mrs. Rachael Lim (above) lost her life in the sinking of the “Kuala” (nephew Kevin Lee).

LIM – Serene Lim, the six year old daughter of Mr. Johnny Lim (above) survived because she was taken by a man who was a family friend from the :Kuala” to Pom Pong Island, she was later reunited with her father, reached Perigi Raja and eventually travelled back to Singapore. After the War she became involved in ballet dancing and water skiing. She passed away in Singapore aged 32 years of age. Her son Kevin Lee has been able to provide some information on this family (son Kevin Lee).

Family of Mr. Lim Chong Pang – “…While at the wharf we met C.P and his brother … here we met them again on the portside deck. With C.P. were their mother, sister, the brother’s wife and three children in the dining room. We gladly accepted his invitation to share biscuits, deck space and seats on the suitcases. C.P. was a fellow Rotarian. A member of the Rural Board and other Government committees and of the O.C.A.E. Mobilization Council…” (CSL p. 43).

LIM – Mrs. Lim Nee Soon (nee Wee Peck Hay), the mother of Lim Chong Pang and Lim Chong Ming appears to have died as a result of the sinking; “… Lim Nee Soon’s wife was Wee Peck Hay. The Lim Genealogy recorded very clearly that Wee Peck Hay’s mother was in Long Xi district, Changzhou Prefecture in Hokkien Province. She was born on 10 April 1884 at No. 63 Amoy Street, Singapore and was married to Lim Nee Soon on 6 December 1901 [20]. Herbie Lim told me that today’s Peck Hay Road, off Clemenceau Ave, was named after his grandmother Wee Peck Hay …” (Kua genealogy document); there may appears to have been a gravestone in Bukit Brown cemetery which has no details of her place of date of death (Singapore blogger ‘rojak librarian’).

LIM – this is Mr. Lim Chong Pang (b. 6 June 1904, Singapore – d. 21 July 1956 in Singapore), the well known Singapore resident; in the Wang letter it says, Lim Chung Pang (sic this should be LIM CHONG PANG) and family boarded the “Kuala” and reached Pulau Medan – Mr. Lim Chung Pang was rescued by a Chinese fisherman with many others and reached Pulau Medan; Dr Chen Su Lan records in page 43 of his book” … While at the wharf we met C.P. and his brother… here we met them again on the portside deck. With C.P. were their mother, sister, the brother’s wife and three children in the dining room. We gladly accepted his invitation to share biscuits, deck space and seats on the suitcases. C.P. was a fellow Rotarian, a member of the Rural Board and other Government Committees and of the O.C.A.E. Mobilization Council …” ;” … According to the Lim genealogy Lim Chong Pang alias Lim Hong, also known as Lim Huang Long, was born at No. 63 Amoy Street on 6th June 1904 at 4.555am. His birth was registered at a police station at Telok Ayer Street on 19th December the same year …” (Kua Bak Lim, genealogy document); it would seem that Lim Chong Pang was commonly known as ‘Chong Pang” and perhaps “CP”; LCP was the son of millionaire rubber planter Lim Nee Soon and in 1929 became the youngest ever member of the Singapore Rural Board. He also sat on the committee of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and was involved in efforts to support the cause of China in the War against Japan (he was also the Hon. Treasurer of the China Relief Fund Committee in Singapore). Post War he was a well known Singapore race horse owner and cinema magnate. He returned to Singapore during the War and after the Japanese Surrender collaboration charges were leveled against him and other members of the Overseas Chinese Association in 1945.; Mr. Lim Chong Pang and his brother were in fact saved by Mr. Tay Ah Soey, who saved a total of 62 people during these events viz. “… [Mr. Tay Ah Soey] who saved 62 people during World War II … he was among a group of five who pulled 62 people out of the water when Japanese forces dropped bombs in the sea on Feb. 13, 1942, sinking boats which were ferrying people away from Singapore. The fisherman and his two brothers had gone out in his own fishing boat, braving bullets and bombs, to save civilians and military personnel.
who had fallen in the sea. Among those he helped pull to safety were rubber and pineapple plantation magnate Lim Chong Pang and his brother. Mr. Lim was the son of Mr. Lim Nee Soon, one of the founders of the overseas -Chinese Bank, which merged with other banks to form OCBC in the 1930’s... (Straits Times 10.8.11); also “It was the two C.P. brothers who at their expense sent food, two bags of rice and cooking utensils which fed the survivors on Pompong for three to four days ...”(CSL); ; Lim Chong Pang had a second marriage in 1944 to Seah Meow Mui ( Kua Bak Lim genealogy document)

• Lim – the Wang letter refers to a “Mrs. Lim Chung Pang “as having been on the “Kuala” and who remained in Pulau Medan for the time being for safety sake; whether this is another wife of Lim Chong Pang who survived the sinking and returned to Singapore during the War remains unclear.

• LIM – Miss Lim Seok Geck, the youngest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lim Nee Soon, and therefore a sister to Lim Choong Pang and Lim Chong Ming, died in the sinking of the “Kuala”, in Hokkien her name should probably be spelled as LIM SEOK GECK. According to the Lim genealogy, Soek Geck was born at No. 56/57 Robinson Road [subsequently renumbered as 112/114 Robinson road] on 22nd December 1921 ( Kua genealogy document – specifically an interview with Herbie Lim on 26.8.90)

• LIM – Lim Chong Ming, the brother of Lim Chong Pang (above) together with his brother, mother, wife and three children were on the “Kuala” (CSL); Chong Ming, together with his brother Lim Chong pang, were rescued by Chinese fishermen and taken to Pulau Medan (Wang letter); it seems likely that Chong Ming also returned to Singapore with his brother in may 1942; His wife and children died in the sinking. He apparently remarried in Singapore in 1943.

• LIM -Mrs. Lim Chong Ming, “… his 4th son, Chong Min (1910-1971) was married to Chua Chit Neo (?? - 1942) , daughter of Chua Guan Chwee …” ( genealogy of Chua family); appears to have died in the sinking with her three children

She called in a passing Tongkang (junk) in an Amoy dialect and persuaded the captain to take Europeans as well as Chinese from Pom Pong Island. Eventually got back to Singapore (NIL); more detail is provided by Dr Chen Su Lan “… we returned to Redjai and passed the night there. There I met an old friend, Mrs. Low; with her four children … Mrs. Low had the same difficulties and danger as we had had at the Telok Ayer Basin [on departure from Singapore docks]. They passed the night in a cabin hired from a Malay member of the crew. During the bombing they prayed in unison … they jumped into the sea with life-belts taken from the cabin. While drifting away from the ship, they saw a bomb fall on a raft and kill all on it. They were picked up by a lifeboat on which three wounded Europeans later died, leaving behind thirty five survivors including Ross, Miss Hsu, Mrs. Schmidt and mother, Mrs. Aera(sic) and baby whom I later met at Senejang.. They rowed and reached an uninhabited island [ researcher not : I may be that this might have been Pom Pong island since this story is resonant with another very similar story said to have occurred at the tip of Pom pong island], passed the night on the fringe of the jungle in strong wind and red ants. Next day the 15th a fish dropped from the sky. They subsisted on it and two overripe coconuts found on the beach and a barrel of water picked up from the sea. Early next morning when their subsistence was no more, Mrs. Low saw in a dream a person robed in white who said to her, “Fear not, help is coming”. Soon a junk appeared. At the sight of the Europeans it shied away. Mrs. Low got together the Chinese to shout to the Taikong (Chinese skipper) in the Amoy dialect and succeeded in persuading him to take them all away. They passed the night on the junk, hiding the Europeans in the cabin. The next day, the 17th, they reached Redjai and found a peerless host in the person of Mr. Heng, who gave up his room, gave them six new blankets and fed nine mouths for one and a half months. He also gave the Europeans his best suits and everything needed before sending them to Senejang ( CSL)

Lowden, banker, reached Padang and embarked on a ship to safety on 1.3.42 so he might well have also been a passenger on the “Kuala”(ECEP); David Lowdon was a prolific sportsman in tennis and soccer during the 1930s in Singapore and worked for the Chartered Bank (ST and SFPMA archives);

He lost all his possessions but was rescued and taken to Gibraltar (ST. 1.12.40); soon after that report he wrote to the ‘Straits times’ to correct them to the effect that , although he had been a resident in Penang for more than 18 years, he was a Netherlander [ he was actually from Asahan, Sumatra] and not of Penang, having been born in Sumatra (ST 22.12.40); even more tragically , at the time of the sinking of the ‘Kuala’ he had been only married for a month to Miss Cora Mona Woodworth of Penang, they had married at St Andrews Cathedral, Singapore on 14.1.42, the reception being held at the bride’s home at 8 Chancery Lane, Singapore. The best man had been Lt. A. H. She looked after her friend Dr (Miss) Elsie Crowe who had been badly injured in the bombing at Pom Pong Island and was also interned. Naval Historical Society of Australia)

- MARSHALL – Mrs. E. A. Marshall, but listed as not passenger on “Kuala” (CAS)

- MATHER (see also MATHEW below) – Mrs. Mather & child boarded “TP” (Ruperti); Mrs.
Mather, Prisons Dept., Kuala Lumpur – listed as on “TP” (JPB); also L. P. Mather, female, b.1917, on “Kuala” (C3124); Mrs. Mather, civilian, British, age 25 years, died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Mrs. Dorothy Louise “Cissie” Mather (nee Hatton) was the wife of Mr. James “Jimmy” Mather, b. 1909, a Prison Officer at Pudu prison and who also became an internee in Changi, she was the daughter of Lena Hatton (above) and was accompanied by her only child, her daughter Maureen who was about 3 years old; Cissie had been in the Signals Division of the Volunteer Forces and she also sought shelter with the Brett family in Singapore; Cissie told her young relative Kenneth Hartley, when they all met up on Pom Pong island that, being unable to board a lifeboat with her little daughter she started swimming with Maureen in tow until tiring; she eventually came across an empty wooden crate so she took off her lifebelt (which had been hindering her efforts to swim) and placed Maureen in the crate (the wounded in the jungle) and boarded “TP” and lost their lives a few days later (Kenneth Hartley “Recollections”) – there is a lot of potential confusion with Mrs. Dorothy Mathew below because of name similarities

- MATHER – child – listed as on “TP” (JPB and C3128); child, by name of MATHER aged 3 years, died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Maureen Mather on “Kuala” (C3130); also Miss Maureen Mather, aged 7 years(?), seen in water – daughter of above, boarded “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); this is Maureen Mather, aged three years, the daughter of Cissie and James Mather (Kenneth Hartley “recollections”) who had accompanied her mother in boarding the “TP”.

- MATHEW (see MATHER above) – Dorothy Mathew on “Kuala” (“C3129); Mrs. Dorothy Mathew (sic?), aged 31 years, seen in water at Pom Pong Island and boarded the “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); Dorothy Mathew, civilian, British, died 14.2.42 around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Mrs. Dorothy Mathew, wife of James Mathew, 52 Pearl Hill Terrace, Singapore (PODC); after the war it was James Mathew of 52 Pearl Hill Terrace, Singapore who applied for the Presumption of death certificate.

- MATHEW – interestingly and with the potential to be some sort of confusion with Mrs. Mather and her daughter Maureen above), after the war Mr. James Mathew also applied for a Presumption of death certificate for a Miss Maureen Mathew??

- MCCANDISH (DENNISON) – Mrs. McCandish (Dennison) was seen on Sinkiep (sic) (CAS); from Malacca?; see also DENNISON record

- MCCONNACHY/McConachy/ McConaghy – Sister E. F. McConachy was either a Civilian or Colonial Nursing Service nurse (QH); Miss. E. McConachy, MEO listed as on “TP” (JPB); also Miss McConaghy, G.H., seen at Pom Pong Island (CAS); also Miss Ethel Florence McConachy, aged 50 years, boarded “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); Miss E. McConacky
(sic) left on “TP” (Ruperti)

- MCDONALD – Miss McDonald, J.B. Hospital on “Kuala” (CAS); Ms. C. McDonald, nurse, Govt.
Hospital Nairobi Oct. 1945 (ALFSEA)

- MCDONALD – seaman on “Kuala” (I. A. Inglis list PRO); it is very possible that this is Seaman Donald McDonald, Royal Naval Reserve, D/X9594B, attached to the shore base “HMS Sultan” in Singapore and who died 16.2.42 (CWGC); since many men from “HMS Sultan” were assigned to ships such as the “Kuala” and others during the last few days before Singapore’s Surrender to the Japanese but [understandably naval records were never updated and the men were officially classified as ‘AWOL’ or absconded

- MCEACHERN – Mrs. Catherine (Kitty) McEachern, aged 44 years, wife of Thomas McEachern of Edinburgh – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC)
- MCEACHERN – Thomas Cray McEachern, aged 43 years, husband of Catherine McEachern – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); also “…McEachern Thos. PCCL (BCL) left Kuala w.

McIntyre, Volunteer, reached Padang and then India (MVDB)
- MCINTYRE – Mrs. McIntyre, Singapore on the “Kuala” (STF); however it appears she almost certainly died on the “TP” since there is a record of Mrs. Thea’ Dorothea Mary McIntyre boarding the “TP” (Mrs. Stevens’ letter 21.6.42 and list at PRO); she was the third wife, and originally from the UK, where she had been born Dorothea Mary Brown in 1904, the daughter of Emily Newton Brown (who remarried a Robert Foster in 1913 so creating the basis of a surname Foster-Brown) who lived at 49 Beechwood Avenue, Sherwood Rise, Nottingham according to the 1911 census.
Thea sailed on the ‘Britannic’ in 1916 with the destination of the Palmer School of Chiropractic, Davenport, Illinois. She was described as 5 ‘2” in height, brown hair and blue eyes. She married Hugh McIntyre in Singapore on 10.8.39 (ST 14.8.39) (source Jamie Norriss and Bev Norriss, the granddaughter of Hugh McIntyre in June 2015); Mr. Hugh McIntyre was born in Hobart in 1982 and aged 49 years, Osteopath, Chiropractor and Radiologist, New Zealander who learned on 10 May 1943 in Changi where he was interned that his wife had been on the “Kuala” and incorrectly had been interned (TKD p.265); this is confirmed in the book “10/10 Trial” the official transcript of the “Double Tenth” trial wherein the Kempeuti tried to get Hugh McIntyre to believe, whilst he was being interrogated at the YMCA headquarters of the K emulate, that his wife Thea was alive and in the hands of the Japanese. Hugh McIntyre was one of the victims of the Japanese Gestapo ‘Kempeuti’ who was tortured, starved and maltreated during the infamous “Double tenth”
(10.10.43) campaign by the Kempeuti to ascertain who had organized the blowing up of Japanese ships in Singapore harbour. (pp.608-620 “The Double Tenth Trial”) He survived the war, spent some time in Western Australia before retiring to England where he passed away at Spilsbury, Lincolnshire in 1975 ((familytreecircle.com); he wrote in a letter to his son, also named Hugh, (introducing himself to his son’s new wife on 25 October 1945 which letter contains the following “…Hugh has asked about my wife and his two aunts. They all left together on a ship named “Iuala” (sic because handwriting hard to read) nothing has been heard of this since 1942 and I have lived these years in anxiety and suspense. Since my release I have combed the earth by wireless, cable and letter with so far, no result. Hugh did not know my wife, an English girl [handwriting looks like the word] Thea Foster- Brown.
She was very tiny only 5ft 1 inch, and she was only a year or two older than Hugh [this means Thea was probably about 22 years old]. I met her in America and afterwards she came out and married her in Singapore.
… I fear she is lost…” (source email from Jamie Norriss and Bev Norris 18.5.13); Thea McIntyre was the sister-in-law of Dorothy Ball and Lucy Penseler who both also lost their lives in the sinking of the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” – see above and below.
- MCKERRON – “… MCKERRON [sic] R. W. P Simons Kuala – missing - drowned?.. “ (BPPL); on 6 January 1942 Thomas Kitching made the notation in his diary (TKD p.29) “…Maj. Nicholson takes over from McKerron [sic] as Chief Censor, Malay: I don’t know why, or what McKerron [sic] will do instead…” (this is a reference to Mr. Scobie Nicholson who was also on the “Kuala”); also Ronald Walter McKerrow, JP., Municipal Commissioner and Director of Paterson Simons & Co., Singapore was lost at sea around 13 - 14.2.42 (Moffatt); Ronald McKerrow was a successful business man in Singapore and had been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Singapore Improvement Trust in 1940; finally “Ronald W McKerrow, Paterson Simons & Co Ltd., died on or about 14 February 1942 at sea off Singapore Island /torpedoing of ship , leave to presume death granted 9 May 1944 (date of certification 13.7.48) Source Holt,

In the morning we found that “2283” [the ‘Krait’] was to tow another launch, about its own size, up river: the engines of the latter being unstartable. She died in March 1945 in Muntok internment camp…” (PBD); possibly a passenger on the on “TP” but this is only by inferences in a diary however other sources suggest that Mrs. Neubronner was a passenger on the “Vyner Brooke” and was first interned at Muntok in 1942 – either possibility remains open because the camp at Muntok saw women arrive who had been on many ships (even Margot Turner from the “TP”) (WBTW); Mrs. Neubronner was originally Miss Olga Mary Gunner who married Mr. Guy V. Neubronner at St. Andrews Cathedral on 27.3.39, Mr. Neubronner was an accountant with Ewart & Co. and Miss Gunner worked at the General Hospital, Johore Bahru (Straits Times)

Newman of Singapore, presumed to have lost her life in the sinking of the SS. Tandjong Pinang” (CORD Reg.1, Folio 253, serial # 1216, Ref 10001/46); this is possibly the same person as “G. N. - NEWMAN – “…Newman Jun’r Kuala – son of G. N (W?). int Padang…” (BPPL); Master G. R. Newman, aged 19 years and a Student at the Trade School, was interned in Bankinang Men’s Camp, Sumatra (Mr. H. van den Bos); this is confirmed by “Jock” Oehlers in his book where he explains that after the four Newman’s reached Pom Pong Island “…A second ship picked them up, but not Dickie, as only the elderly and women were allowed on board. From the shore Dickie watched his parents and sister depart, only for the ship to be torpedoed and sunk with the loss of all on board. Dickie was interned in Indonesia…” (F. A. C. Oehlers’ book – “That’s how it goes: the autobiography of a Singapore Eurasian”, 2008); finally it has been confirmed that Gerald Rowland ‘Dicky’ Newman, the son of Jim and Dorothy Newman was on the “Kuala” with his parents and sister, but he survived the bombing to be in the sea and for some time held his relative Sally Ann van der Stratten in the water before she was rescued by Malay fishermen. Dicky, who had been born in Singapore in 1923 survived to be interned. He died in Perth, W.A. in 1998 (Nina van Dort)

S. (Scobie) Nicholson, Chief Postal Censor, Malaya aged 66 years, was ordered out of Singapore by Bisseker (his pass with Bisseker’s signature is in his file in the IWM) and boarded the “Kuala”, during the sinking he mentions “…clinging to the raft were several nursing sisters, a civilian, an Indian soldier and a gunner corporal. Others picked out of the sea including J.B. Ross, the Mercantile Bank Chief and a sorely wounded lady doctor, I think her name was Miss Craik (sic it should be Craig)…” , he reached Padang too late to be evacuated and after “…the Japanese took Padang by telephone…” he was interned and was 71 years of age when released (IWM 96/19/1); Mr. H. This was another terrible tragedy in the evacuation of civilians and service personnel in the “escape route” from Singapore to India, with the loss of almost 600 people in one ship - see the book “The Boat” (CWGC)

• NUNN – Major Reginald Lewis Nunn, Director of Public works, DSO., was rescued by Capt. Bill Reynolds and taken to Rengat (Capt. Quite incredibly, in the middle of the Indian Ocean the “Palopo” came across the flotsam from the sinking of the “Rooseboom” (see record on Mr. and Mrs. Nunn above) which had sunk nine days previously, and amongst it found one Malay male and one Indian male survivor. The “Palopo” arrived safely in Colombo (WSF); Mr. O’Grady recorded a long, valuable account of the aftermath of the sinking and the journey to Padang (G. J. O’Grady, Report No.4, Malayan Research Bureau)

• O’Hare/O’HARA – whilst rowing a dinghy and towing a raft with 14 people on it from the “Kuala” to an island some 16 miles from Pom Pong island Mr. D. Mackay states “…so I looked for help and saw a man I know (an Australian tin miner named O’Hara) in the distance and called him over…” . Mr. O’Hara was then in this group of seventeen people who were rescued by Malay sampan some dys later and reached Senajong (sic) at about 7.30 am on 17 February. It is not clear whether Mr. O’Hara had arrived at Pom Pong Island on the “Kuala” or the “Tien Kwang”. (D. Mackay Report no.2 Malayan Research Bureau, C) 980/217); Mr. T. V. H. Parr, #20009, ‘D’ Company, 1st Bn SSVF (JBDB)

• PARR - Mrs. Parr, wife of Sgt. Parr, last seen in Jambi (Ruperti); also “Mrs. Parr seen at Djambi Hospital” which is a report by a Sgt Hoskin, RAOC; it is possible that this person is actually Mrs. Dorothy Parr above and the husband rank is incorrect and she died at Djambi rather than on the ship – or it refers to Mrs. Parr below who was either wounded in Hospital or had volunteered in Djambi Hospital,

• PARR – Mrs. Parr, “Husband, Rev. St Andrews “is listed as seen on the “Kuala” (CAS); and a reference to her husband “… Parr Rev. A. C. Got away safely; she was on Kuala and feared lost…” (diary entry dated 7 June 1943 of Douglas Gibson civilian internee in Changi, held at IWM, and kindly supplied by the late Rod Suddaby)

Pattara was the wife of Zacharia Pandazzi Pattara, b. 1876, they were both originally from Greece, but had been in Singapore for many decades Mr. Pattara had a business in High Street, Singapore near Da Silva’s the jewelers, selling Panama hats, dresses, shirts and “Camel” coffee which the Sultan of Johore came over regularly to buy. They had five daughters Clio and her twin Ino, Thetie, Terpie and Thalina – all named after Greek Goddesses. After experiencing shelling of their house they had moved into town to stay with a friend, Mrs. Haggart, in the Capitol Apartments and soon after decided the family must evacuate. Mrs. Pattara, Ino, Clio and Thetie agreed – but Terpie was by then engaged to a school teacher (Benny Szynkiewicz who would later lose his life as a POW on the death march in Borneo) and Thalina decided she would stay with her father. So four evacuated on the “Kuala” and those remaining were soon interned in Changi internment camp never knew what had happened to his wife and he himself died in internment “…Poor old H. M. - PATTARA - Thetie Pattara - listed as on “TP” (JB); “Miss Pattara. Fate unknown.” (STF); T. Pattara, daughter of Zacharia and A. L. Pattara - died in sinking of “TP” (CWGC); however in contradiction to the CWGC record the da Silva record mentioned above records only one sister leaving with Aurea da Silva on the “TP” and also only one sister wounded and with Mrs. Pattara on the Island; also during 2008 Miss Terpie Pattara was advised by a family member that the body of Miss Thetie Pattara had been found by survivors on Pom Pong Island in the days after the bombarding and buried on Pom Pong Island (conversation with Terpie Pattara); the conclusion then must be that Thetie lost her life trying to reach the shore at Pom Pong island during the bombing.

Padlow, QAIMNS, as being on the “Kuala” (CAS), but presumably this is the same person; Sister Edith Doreen Pedlow, QAIMNS, #206391, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pedlow - she is recorded as dying on 20.2.42 which indicates that she survived on one of the rafts after the sinking of the “TP” for three days (CWGC)

Lillian had boarded with her sister Flossie Smith and four children as well as her cousin Sybil Zehnder and four daughters (see below)

- PLENCKERS - Miss Lilian Plenckers ("Girlie" according to ALFSEA list) Patricia, aged 18 years, British, daughter of John and Lilian Plenckers, 24 Chapel Road, Singapore – died on 14.2.42 around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Miss Lilian Patricia Plenckers was born in 1923 (source Penelope Ferguson) evacuating from Padang (Proud); Jonathan Moffatt has summarized as ‘Proud H. [Harry]

  Wounded and evacuated 13 2.42 on Kuala - sunk - reached Padang then on ‘HMAS Hobart’ to and CWGC); presumably Gunner Rafferty was wounded in the bombing of the Kuala” and Pom Pong island and died on the Island two days after the sinking. Given the date it is possible he was cello). It appears from family correspondence that Vivien left Penang on the evening of 15 December and travelled to Singapore by train where she stayed with Olive & George Stephens.

  After originally being assigned as a volunteer driver she changed to volunteer nurse at the Military Hospital and was no doubt caught up in the evacuation of nurses which placed her on the ‘Kuala”

John Robins (C&W) diary as having been on Pulau Mas in the Lingga group of islands (John Robins): Mr. Riviere of Cable and Wireless was in the group with Messrs. Joyce and Feakes of the same company and Messrs. Potts and Breader in the small boat operated by Hedley, Parsons and Poole between Dabo and Tembilahan (STF); he appears to have arrived in Padang too late to be evacuated and was interned there with five other C & W staff and Messrs. Robertson and Scott-Ram (John Robins diary); Mr. C. H.
Riviere aged 48 years, Manager of Cable & Wireless was interned in Bankinang Men’s camp, Sumatra (Mr.

been evacuated to Australia ahead of the Japanese invasion).

- ROBINSON – Mrs. Robinson. The husband of a Mrs. Robinson was told whilst in Changi that she had been interned after surviving (possibly in Batavia), this may have been a confusion with Mrs.
Lily Robinson mentioned below (TKD p.257); however there is also; Mrs. Robinson, Wife of Mr.
Robinson, Manager, Great Eastern Live(sic) Insurance Co., - listed as on “TP” (JPB and Ruperti); as well as a listing on the CWGC website stating – Mrs. Hilda Robinson, age 54 years, MAS., wife of Penang – died on “TP” (C4246); finally Mabel Robinson, civilian (British) – died on “TP” (CWGC).

Flat No 5, Tijong Bahru, Singapore interned in Padang (Mr. H. van den Bos)

- ROE – Miss Roe…(Mrs. Lowdeen) seen on “Kuala” (CAS); this would appear to be Mrs. Marion Lowdon, wife of David Lowdon, she was lost at sea on 14.2.42 “Kuala” [34] (JM); documents point to her actually having lost her life after subsequently boarding the “Tandjong Pinang”

- RON – Mrs. J. P. Ron, husband Mercantile Bank, S’pore, left on “TP” (Ruperti) - this could have been someone’s illegible writing on the beaches on Pom Pong island and it could be a reference to Mrs. Ross below

- ROSS – Mrs. John Ross, husband Mercantile seen on Pom Pong Island (CAS); Mrs. J.B. Ross, Mercantile Bank, Singapore – listed as on “TP” (JPB); also “… Ross J.B. Merc Bank Int PB [indecipherable] wife Tanj. Pinang?” (BPPL); Isabella Ross, Nurse, Medical Auxiliary Service. B. 1890. Died in sinking of “TP” (C4283); Mrs. Isabella Ross, MA. Nurse MAS., age 52 years, wife of John Black Ross, Abington, Lanarkshire – died in sinking of “TP” (CWGC); Mrs. Isabel Clarkson Ross (Moffatt); Mrs. Isabella Clarkson Ross was born in Carmichael, Lanarkshire on 27 June 19890, daughter of James, a grain merchant and Isabella Clarkson of Ladygill House, Roberton, Abington, Lanarkshire. Isabella attended the University of Glasgow in 1909 and graduated MA. in 1911. (University of Glasgow); from a family photo probably taken in Scotland she had two daughters who may have been teenagers at the time of the War; her husband was also probably on the “Kuala” (see below),

- ROSS – Mr. J. B. Ross was probably also on the “Kuala” [researcher note: he was definitely on either the “Kuala” or the “Tien Kwang” or the “Kung Wo”] since he is recorded by Scobie Nicholson as “… others picked out of the sea including J.B. Ross, the Mercantile Bank Chief…” (IWM 96/19/1); Mr. J.B. Ross was one of the people mentioned by Dr. Chen Su Lan in his book as being picked up by a lifeboat with 35 people on board [which included Mrs. Grace Low and others – see Mrs. Low entry for detail] which reached “… an uninhabited island “… [possibly even part of Pom Pong island] and then were taken by Chinese junk to Redjai before later moving on to Senejang (CSL story on Mrs. Low); also “Ross, A Rotarian, manager of the Chartered Bank …” whom CSL met at Senajang and said that he Ross was “… proceeding with the first batch of evacuees to the island of Sinkep … and further to Sumatra” (CSL); he reached Sumatra but was captured and interned in the Bankinang men’s camp; John Black Ross, born 1897 and Manager Mercantile Bank, Penang 1937 – 42; he remarried to Mary post war and died in Edinburgh in 1957

- ROSS – Mr. A. F. P. Ross, PWD (PWD list at PRO); also “…a civilian named Ross, a PWD employee who had been ashore to cut branches to camouflage the “Kuala” , launched a lifeboat and tried to reach the swimmers…” (EFSGR p.124)

- RUPERTI -the record made by Luba Ruperti is pivotal to understanding many of the identities of those people on board the “SS. Kuala” and the SS. Tandjong Pinang” (see source Ruperti) Mrs. Lupa Ruperti noted as being on the “Kuala” (CAS); Madame. Ruperties (sic), Singapore – “…boared the “TP” “… (STF); in fact Mrs. Luba Ruperti survived and reached India (Ruperti); also “…Mrs. Duba (sic) Rupeite (sic) embarked on a ship from Padang on 1.3.42…” (ECEP); Luba Ruperti led an eventful life that is well recorded by newspaper reporting and she appears to have enjoyed publicity – she appears to have been born in 1896 and was “… a White Russian who first arrived in Singapore [with her parents] in 1918… (STA 15.3.64); “… In Russia, during the Bolshevik revolution, when she was a little girl, her sister was killed by a mob. Her parents fled to the Philippines where Luba Alexandrovna [it is unclear why this name is used] grew into a lovely and popular singer. She married a dashing White Russian naval hero. And they opened a series of restaurants and night clubs and hotels… The couple came to Singapore. Her four years after their marriage, came the biggest blow of all “… her much loved “Captain” went for his usual evening stroll and vanished…” (STA 19.1161); the reality of her life seems to have been somewhat different – it appears from newspaper archives that Luba Engel , daughter of Mr. & Mrs. A. Engel of Singapore married Alexander Ruperti, formerly Lt Commander in the Imperial Russian Navy, in Singapore in 1925 (STA 4.8.25); in 1928 Alexander Ruperti was the subject of a court hearing into his debts and after offering to repay these debts over a long period (STA 10.11 28) he disappears from record; then during the 1930s Luba appeared by herself as Mrs. Ruperti in newspaper reports (Straits Times photo 2.6.38) of social occasions and dances and it was during the time she had her own hat and dress shop at 74 Orchard Road, Singapore (STA 30.4.37); she told newspaper reporters in the 1960s that in 1942 she was “…out front ,cooking, nursing and cheering…” at the time of the Japanese invasion and was ordered to leave on the “Kuala”, when it was sunk at Pom Pong island she “… managed to swim ( “My fat be blessed for that!” ) dragging two hysterical women with her (“They wouldn’t let go!”) to nearby Pom Pom Island…” , she was apparently in the water for three hours; HERE THERE IS AN INTERESTING NEWSPAPER RECORD THAT MAY ( BUT PROBABLY DO NOT AFTER FURTHER ANALYSIS) REFER TO HER BEING ANOTHER UNKNOWN SURVIVOR OF THE SINKING OF THE “SS. TANDJONG PINANG” – in ‘Straits Times” articles on her life printed in 1961 and 1964 (the second reporter may have plagiarized an earlier report on this point) it is stated that “She managed to reach nearby Pom Pom Island, after spending three hours in the water, where she was rescued by a passing Dutch freighter, only to be shipwrecked again off the coast of Sumatra…” (STA 15.3.64); against this scenario however is a report by Mrs. Lancaster (wife of Captain Lancaster, (Captain of the “Giang Bee”) who was debriefed by the Malayan research bureau on 24.11.42 in Singapore with the statement regarding Luba Ruperti of “… met L Mrs. Roberti (Luba) in Bombay when both staying at ‘Kutch Castle’. Mrs. Roberti said ‘… 200 women were landed on the Island [Pom pong Island] and they went to the other side…’ … Mrs. Roberti did not see them again but thought they had been taken away by the Japanese (does she mean Tanjong Pinang) …” (PRO CO980/217) which strongly indicates that she did not board the ‘Tandjong Pinang’ and this inclusion in her story may just be misreporting on the part of the journalist; these “Straits Times” newspaper reports say that she eventually reached India where “… she spent three action packed years looking after thousands of Allied troops…” (STA 19.1161); after the war she returned to Singapore and entered into a partnership with Mrs. E. Flinter (speculation - possibly the mother of Mr. Moritz Flinter the jeweler who had also been on the “Kuala” with his wife Lucy who lost her life either on that ship or the “Tandjong Pinang”??) in the running of a boarding house named “Villa Louisa” at 87 Cavanagh Road; then (as a widow living at 87 Cavanagh Road, Singapore ) she applied for naturalization (STA 28.6.48); the partnership failed through Luba taking more money out of the business that had been agreed and the partnership was dissolved in 1949 following court action for the recovery of the money ($35,000) by Mrs. E. Flinter and the subsequent bankruptcy of Luba Ruperti who was instructed to repay Mrs. Flinter $50 per month (STA 21.7.49 and 1.4.50 and 15.4.50); by 1955-56 she ran a “rest house” in Kota Bahru in the very north of Malaya, “…the brand new hotel she ran had only just opened and she was making it a place that people would come for a drink and to socialize instead of going to the traditional Kelantan Club… when I observed her in all her glorious eccentricity and colourful caftans… she was a larger than life person…” (author and blog writer Valerie Davies February 2015); in 1958 she is recorded as a ‘housewife’ living at Robin Road, Singapore whilst being the passenger in a car accident (20.11.58); by the 1960s she had become “… utterly dependant … “ for her living by making and selling exquisite dolls dressed in the glittering costumes of old Russia, complete with “… tiny earrings, bracelets and fairy tale rings on the dolly fingers…” (STA 19.11.61 ); she appears at this stage of her life to have been still the exuberant woman who had lived through so much fear , chaos and loss without losing her innate spirit. Nothing more is known of the subsequent life (presumably in Singapore) of Luba Ruperti.

- RUSSELL - Miss Russea (sic) Matron, QAIMNS, 17th C. General Hospital “…not seen since first bombing of ship. Believed killed by direct hit on cabin. Direct hit witnessed by members of QAIMNS…” (Evans); Matron Winifred Russell, QAIMNS, aged 54 years, awarded the “Mentioned in Dispatches” – she died on 14.2.42 (CWGC); also a reference to Miss Winifred Russell, Matron, 17th General Clearing Hospital – died around sinking of “TP” (SIA); – this raises a question as to whether Matron Russell died in the sinking of the “Kuala” or the “TP” but the QAIMNS witnesses remove any doubt and in fact it is recorded (QH) that she died when she was swimming to shore wearing a lifejacket and, since she could not submerge, was killed when the bombers returned to strafe the survivors in the water; in addition another QAIMNS, Miss Margot Turner, states that she jumped into the sea with her Matron, Miss Russell, who though thought to be a strong swimmer, was not seen again… (SDGB, p. 37)

- SALMOND - Mr. I. G. Salmon a merchant aged 37 years who succeeded in reaching Padang and tried to escape on a small boat with some “…officials and services…” but was captured by a Japanese tanker in the Indian Ocean arrived Changi 7.4.42 (TKD); this is confirmed in a four page report by I. G. Salmon (PRO); to UK on “Ranchi” (ALFSEA).

- SAMUEL - there is a record that Mr. Samuel was on either the “Tien Kwang” or the “Kuala” (list of people on either “Kuala” or “Tien Kwang” at PRO); also see “…Samuel C. R. Logan Ross & Samuel NEIP? Wife left with him…” (BPPL); “…Mr. Samuels a lawyer from Penang…” left Pom Pong Island with Oswald Gilmour and men from APC. in a ‘prau’…(STF); also a Mr. Charles Robert Ross Samuel, B.1881, Advocate Solicitor, Straits Settlement became an internee in Bankinang camp, Sumatra (presumably after reaching Padang) (C4362); he was a partner in Logan, Ross and Samuel, 5 Union Street, Penang and a member of Penang Rotary (JM); Charles Samuel recorded in his diary arriving in Padang on 7 March 1942; Mr. Samuel, Advocate, died 15.12.44 of Dysentery at Bankinang (ALFSEA); alternatively records say he died of Diphtheria in Padang gaol on this date; after the war he his remains were removed and sent to Dutch Trust managed Cimahi cemetery near Bandung in Java where he now lies at rest in a well maintained grave which is photographed on the website of the Dutch Trust .(https://oorlogsgrevenstichting.nl/begraafplaats/169/nederlands-ereveld-leuwigajah-te-cimahi).

- SANDERS - Mr. J. O. Sanders, FMSR, Kuala Lumpur, in UK (ALFSEA)
- SARNEY - Able Seaman John ‘Jack’ Horace Sarney, aged 28 years, RNZN, # A1631, had joined the crew of the “Kuala” from the Singapore shore base “HMS Sultan”, after earlier serving on the Armed Merchant Cruiser “HMNZS Monowai”; he was later captured by the Japanese at Padang on 17.3.42 and became a POW in Sumatra.; he became part of the “Sumatra Battalion” (formed from 500 servicemen in the Army, Navy and Airforce from all Allied countries who had not managed to escape from Padang); they were initially moved to a camp in Medan in Northern Sumatra (book “The British Sumatra battalion by Mrs. Ann Athorp) then in the camps of Mergui and Tavoy and then about twelve more camps in Thailand and Vietnam. He survived the War and returned to Auckland, NZ. (MI9 NZ questionnaire, NZ Archives and NZ Naval Museum posting records); Jack Sarney states he had joined the “Kuala” on the 11 February1942 and when the ship was bombed he swam to shore, notably he states in a letter to his wife upon release from POW camp that the “Kuala” survivors were in fact machine gunned by the Japanese planes whilst they were in the water and attempting to climb onto Pom Pong island; his foot became poisoned on the trek across Sumatra and he was in hospital in Padang; when the Japanese captured him he became a member of the “British (Sumatra) POW Battalion” (letter from Jack Sarney to his wife September 1945)
- SAWYER - Mr. H. N. Sawyer, PWD (PWD list at PRO); Captain H. N. Sawyer, Volunteer, reached Padang and arrived Colombo 10.3.42 on “Chitral” (MVDB & CO 980/7)
- SCALES - Mr. Stuart S. Scales, now Indian Army, C/- Chartered Bank, Bombay (Ruperti); Mr. Scales, Singapore evacuated from Padang on possibly the ‘Hobart’ on 1.3.42 (Rosemary Fell email 14.5.09).
- SCHMIDT - it was recorded by Dr Chen Su Lan in his book that there was a lifeboat with “Kuala” survivors viz “...a lifeboat on which three Europeans later died, leaving behind thirty five survivors including Ross. Miss Hsu, Mrs. Schmidt and mother, Mrs. Aera and baby” which reached an uninhabited island then were taken by Chinese junk to Redjai on 17.2.42 (CSL); in the newspaper archives in Singapore there is a reference to a Mr. W. H. Schmidt (ST 30.10.39), and a Mrs. Schmidt and Miss H. Schmidt arriving on the “Aeneas” (ST 13.8.31); whether this family were German (unlikely because she would have not have been given an exit permit to board the ship) or Dutch is unclear, The firm of W. Schmidt must have been German because on the outbreak of War in 1939 there was a sale of Alien Enemy property from that company.
- SCOTT - Miss J. D. Scott, MEO. - listed as on “TP” (JPB); Miss Scott. “…boarded the “TP”…” (STF); Matron J. Scot (sic), K. L. seen on Pom Pong Island (CAS); Matron Jessie Dow Scott, General Hospital, Seremban, Malaya. Age 55 years, Daughter of Daniel and Margaret Scott, Carnock, Fifeshire – died in sinking of “TP” (CWGC)
- SCOTT- RAM - in the Shell Oil employee escape party with Woolerton, D.S. Robertson and H.H. Sturt, he was seen on Pom Pong island and then Padang on 7 March (letter from Mr. W. G. Taylor of Shell Oil to company magazine July 1942); he arrived in Padang too late to be evacuated and he interned there with Robertson of APC and five Cable & Wireless staff (diary of John Robins, Cable & Wireless); Lt. Herbert Scott-Ram, FMSVF Reserve, escaped Singapore on Mutiara but interned Sumatra( MVDB); Mr. H. Scott- Ram, APC, to Australia on “Highland Chieflain” 29.9.45 (ALFSEA); Mr. Herbert “Scottie” Scott-Ram, born 1899, an employee of Asiatic Petroleum, was interned in Bankinang camp, he later retired to Nutfield, Surrey and died in 1980 (Moffatt).
- SEARS - a stoker or “fireman” according to survivor Dr. Marjorie Lyons who records, that during the bombing of the “Kuala”, he courageously helped Lyons and a nursing Sister with carrying a wounded person who had a compound fracture of the femur “...Sears, a fireman, was with me, then as the ship was hit and caught fire “...Sears hurried us off...”the ship. She later records moving people around the Island over the following few days “...again with Sears help...” (IWML); this raises a question as to when he must have later lost his life because CWGC records show “Chief Stoker Herbert Raymond Sears, RN., aged 42 years, #P/K 60309, attached “HMS Sultan”, son of George and Emily Sears he died on 16.2.42 (CWGC); this date may have been nominated as being the last recorded sighting of Chief Stoker Sears leaving open the question of whether he died leaving Pom Pong Island on one of the later rescue vessels (including the coincidental date of the sinking of the “TP”)

• SEEVER/SEARER - Mrs. Seaver (sic), husband Brigadier, RAMC – listed as on “TP” (JPB); also listed as Mrs. SEAVER as having boarded the “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); this would appear to have been a woman who had an unknown relationship in Singapore with Brigadier Charles Douglas Kingsley Seaver, RAMC (who came from Ireland but had served for a long time in India) but it was not his wife who was Mrs. Frances Seaver (daughter of Seaward Featherston of Longford) and in fact had remained in Ireland during the Second World War. Presumably she boarded the ship (it was difficult to get departure approvals from Singapore at that point in history) as a result of the influence of Brigadier Seaver and she presumably boarded with the wives of other senior RAMC personnel. Insofar as descendants, Brigadier Seaver had three sons according to grandson Nigel Seaver on Ancestry.com; Brig. Seaver was a witness at the wedding of Brig. Heath, C.O. of the 3rd Indian Division (ST 30.6.41); there is no record of the death of the woman described as ‘Mrs. Seaver’ on the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” in the CWGC website under that name. The real identity of this woman remains a mystery..

• SELFE (see also SIEFE) - Mrs. K. M. Salf, of Pasir Pajang, is reported as the employer in a case where the house boy stole an item from a drawer and absconded (STA. 19.4.39); Montague ‘Monty’ P. Salf lived in Singapore and Penang prior to the war (he was employed by William Jacks & Co.(Malaya) Ltd. and a committee member of the Singapore Cricket Club (STA 13.3.38 and 26.5.40); only Mrs. Salf is reported as being on the “Kuala”; Mrs. Salf (sic), G.H., seen on “Kuala” (CAS); Mrs. Kathleen Salf, reported drowned since unofficially reported as on “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); also Mrs. Salf, Colonial Nursing Service, left on “TP” (Ruperti); which is in contradiction to the CWGC record of; Mrs. Kathleen Mary SELFE, Nursing Sister, aged 49 years in 1943, English and from the Rhio Archipelago, presumed to have lost her life following the sinking of the SS. Kuala, source C-in-C, ALFSEA (CPORD Reg. M1, Folio 278, Ref 23/10259/45: it is the researchers opinion that Mrs. Salf probably boarded the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” and lost her life in the sinking of that ship on 17.2.42; Montague Salf, of William Jack Ltd., was an internee in Changi (C4481)

• SELWAY – Mr. Selway, Naval base (ALFSEA); Robert Henry Selway, born 1920 was a Storehouseman, Singapore, and became an internee in Bankinang camp, Sumatra (Moffatt and Mr. H. van den Bos’ list of internees)

SERGEANT (ALFSEA); NOTE: a Mrs. Ruby Sergeant, aged 49 years in 1943, English and from the Norseman Estate, Ulu Sepetang, Taiping, Perak was an internee in the British Women’s Camp in Padang – this may bethe same person or a relation – she died in March 1944; the following family may in some way be related - SERGEANT F.W.B.[Frederick Walter Bastle] b.1890. Planter, Golconda [Malaya] Rubber Co.Ltd, Kapar then Duff Development Corporation. Sgt, Perak LDC 12.40 to Singapore Observer Corps 16.1.42. He was a Changi and Sime Rd internee. Wife Franchon Eva Mabel Sergeant of Sungei Buloh Estate, Bukit Rotan, Selangor a Sumatra internee. She died 29.10.74 Malaysia. (JM)

• SERVICE - Miss Service, Sister, MMS, later Matron in charge at Dabok (sic) Hospital (list of people on either “Kuala” or “Tien Kwang” at PRO); Miss A. T. Service, Colonial Nursing Service, last seen at Dabat (sic) (Ruperti); listed as one of the hospital team in the Fraterhuis and Bankinang camps by Marjorie de Malmanche (IWMDM); this was Miss Sarah Service Colonial Nursing Sister, Johore General Hospital. Survived Kuala sinking and reached Senejang. Nursed the dying Dr Craig. Padang, Sumatra internee. Repatriated on Antenor from Singapore, arriving Liverpool 27.10.45. Living in Nairn 2002. (JM ‘Malaysians’).

• SHARP - “...Sharp CCT RRI Kuala with Page…” (BPPL); “...Mr. Sharpe, Mgr Railways from KL…” was seen on Pom Pong Island by Captain Briggs of the “Tien Kwang” (CO980/217, MRB Report No. 23 by Captain Briggs, 12.8.42); Charles Sharp, Botanist with the RRI is also recorded as having been on the “Tien Kwang”; Mr. Sharp, Botanist, Singapore evacuated from Padang on “HMS dragon” on 3.3.42 (rosemary fell email 14.5.09).

- SHARPE – Mrs. Gwendoline Agnes Sharpe, aged 29 years, wife of Mr. R. Sharpe and daughter of George and Adolphine Baker, 10 Dukes Road, Bukit Timah, Singapore – she died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); finally Mrs. Gwendoline Agnes Sharpe, applicant for death certificate Public Trust, Perth, Western Australia (PODC)

- SHEERLAW – Miss P. W. Sheerlaw, Kuala Lumpur, left for UK (list of people on either “Kuala” or “Tien Kwang” at PRO) – this looks like either the wife or daughter of Mr. P. W. Sheerlaw of Klang, a planter and CSM Perak Bn., FMSVF

- SIE – Miss Sie, a teacher at Chong Hock School where Mrs. Low was Head. She returned to Singapore after the sinking with the Low family (NIL)

- SHEARLAW / SHEARLAW – Mrs. J. Shaerlaw wife of Mr. B. Shaerlaw (ALFSEA); could be the same person as SHAERLAW, SHERLOW or Shearlaw (Mr. P.W. & Mrs. J. Shaerlaw who lived in Malaya at the time and who both survived the War???)

- SHAW – Mrs. Shaw. In Changi it was learned that a Mrs. Shaw had been on the “Kuala” and survived to be interned in Tokyo (TKD p310); this in fact may not have been correct because in the Japanese propaganda Broadcast and in the UK investigation it was recorded that

- SHAW – Mrs. Shaw, wife of Mr. Shaw, Singapore Fire Dept – listed as on “TP” (JPB and Ruperti); also Mrs. Jean G Shaw boarded “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); also Mrs. Shaw, husband Fire Station, listed as seen on Pom Pong Island (CAS); there is also a record (by the mother of a Martin Everard, “...on the “Kuala” Nellie, wife of No.1 Fire Brigade Singapore was drowned...” in his mother’s story there is also another account which may be relevant “…Jean, beautiful young, golden girl she was, had been incredibly brave going in and out of the water rescuing people and getting them onto the sand...had been recaptured and taken back to Singapore, never heard of again…” (Martin Everard, ‘BBC. UK’ website); sadly the idea of her being captured and taken back to Singapore is almost certainly a confusion caused by the erroneous Allied story that the “SS. Tandjong Pinang” had been captured by the Japanese whereas it was sunk with only a handful of survivors on 17 February 1942; Mrs. Dorothy Edna ‘Jean’ Shaw was the daughter of John and Mary Eleanor Morey and she was the sister of ‘Nellie’ Hill (above) with whom she had boarded the “SS. Kuala’, she had married James George ‘Jim’ Shaw at St Andrews Cathedral in July 1937 9 at which her sister Nellie was bridesmaid), she was renowned for always having a small dog with her, there were no children from this marriage (family records supplied via Annie Tate-Harte great niece); it should be stressed by the researcher of this document that the actions, under bombing and machine gunning by Japanese planes, of Jean Shaw in entering the sea and rescuing people whilst most other men and women survivors on Pom Pong island were sheltering in the jungle or behind the rocks and cliffs, was an action of extreme courage and in other military circumstances would have earned a high decoration; notably in this context, Mr. James George Shaw, b. 1899, was Superintendent, Fire Brigade and an internee in Changi (C4524); Jim Shaw survived the war and it would appear that Jean’s mother searched for answers to her daughters fates for several years before sadly placing an In Memoriam notice in the ‘Straits Times’ in 1947.

- SHAW – Miss M. Shaw boarded “TP” (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO) this is probably a reference to Jean Shaw (above) but may be a separate person yet to be identified

- SHEARLAW – see Shaerlaw or Sheerlaw or Sherlow

- SHERLOW – Mrs. Sherlow, Klang. Fate unknown? (STF); almost certainly the same person as SHEARLAW or SHAERLAW

- SIEFE (sic)/ SELFE – Mrs. Siefie. On 16.10.42 Mrs. Siefie’s(sic) husband, who was interned in Changi learned by wireless that his wife had been on the “Kuala” and had survived (TKD p.194) – this was however incorrect – see SELFE

- SIM – Sister Agnes Slim(sic), in company with another Sister from the Western Infirmary, Glasgow, Sister Logan, was on the “Kuala” but went down with the ship...” (NHS., Greater Glasgow Health News 26.3.06); ALFSEA (it appears incorrectly) had her reaching Singapore, never heard of again…” (Martin Everard, ‘BBC. UK’ website).

- SIM – “…Sim???? Customs Kuala? Padang? India? ...” (BPPL); Alexander Woodrow Stuart Sim, OBE, MID., was Asst. Supt. Customs Officer, FMS. Lumut, Perak and a Sub. Lt. MRNVR, “...Next we saw a man floating about some distance away, a Sub-Lt RNVR – Stuart Sim by name. He was wounded in the leg. A bomb splinter having gone into his ankle and embedded itself...We pulled him on board, and he did magnificent work in helping to manage the boat and rescue others in spite of his wounded foot. We were now drifting with the current on to breakers which marked a reef just awash. The situation was desperate; there were some 39 people on board and we were half full of water. I therefore asked Sim to take command of the boat and be Coxswain, which he did, seating himself in the stern and shipping the rudder. What magnificent work he accomplished too, giving commands from the end of that crowded boat… But for Stuart’s seamanship I am prepared to say we would never have got clear of that reef, but been upset and all drowned…” (p36 SDGB, Arthur Ross account); Stuart Sim was interned in Padang and returned post war to Malay Custom until 1961

- SIM – Miss B. Sim, G.H., MAS, seen on “Kuala” (CAS); this would almost certainly be Miss Agnes Moore Sim, age unknown, British nationality, died 14.2.42 in the sinking of the “Kuala” CWGC; also Miss Agnes Moore Sim, Colonial Nursing Sister, Singapore general Hospital, killed in air attack 14.2.42 Singapore (JM Malayan list)

- SIM / SUM – Mrs. Sum (left) on the “TP” (Ruperti)

- SIMS – Miss. “…believed lost…” (STF); Nurse Carmen Sims. b.1921. - died around sinking of “Kuala” (C2288); Miss Carmen Sim, S/N, G.H., Eur., seen on “Kuala” (CAS); Nurse Carmen Sims, aged 21 years, daughter of Ernest and Margaret Sims, 32 Jervois Road, Singapore – died around sinking of ”Kuala” (CWGC)

- SKEHAN – Miss Mary Skehan, MEO. Malayan Nursing Service, General Hospital – listed as on “TP” (JPB and Ruperti); also Miss Skehan, Sister, MMS (list of people on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); Miss Mary Skehan, aged 27 years, daughter of John and Anne Skehan, Broadford, Co. Clare – she died in the sinking of the “TP” (CWGC)

- SLEIGH – Ms. Sleigh with three children was on the “Kuala” , but did not get on the “TP” (ALFSEA); this is in fact a reference to Miss Jessie Lee (see separate entry above) who volunteered to care for the three Sleigh girls on board the “Kuala” (Sleigh family 2011), SO SEE BELOW,

- SLEIGH – Miss Stella Sleigh, a pretty girl with dark wavy hair & a beautiful voice, who loved to sing and act in school plays, aged 12 years at the time of the sinking (born on 13 July 1930) and daughter of ‘Harry’ (or ‘Pop’) Henry Montague Holland Sleigh (1880-1961) a well known horse trainer in Singapore and his second wife Hannah (nee Elias) who was 17 years of age when she married ‘Pop’ Sleigh. Stella, although not Catholic had attended the Holy Infant Jesus Convent School in Singapore as boarder. There were five daughters in all in the Sleigh family and the two youngest sisters (Violet 6 years and Joyce aged 5 years) remained in Singapore - Violet with her father and were both as a result interned in Changi and Joyce with her mother who took her to Pulau Bintan for the duration of the war. In fact Violet, who was also to board with her sisters, clung to her father in tears and terror and refused to leave. In the chaos on the dock and with time running out, Jessie lee said “… give me her ticket and I’ll look after the girls …“ and boarded in her place. So Violet who later became Miss Malaya 1953 at age 18 years was as close to being a passenger on the “Kuala” as could be imagined. She later became a model, married an advertising executive and moved to Australia in 1957 where she continued her career and had four daughters.. (conversations and correspondence with Joyce and Violet and family); see also Jessie Lee,

- SLEIGH – Miss Iris Sleigh, a pretty little girl aged 11 years (born on 10 October 1931) at the time of the sinking and one of five daughters of ‘Harry’ or ‘Pop’ Sleigh a well known horse trainer in Singapore both pre and post war and his second wife Hannah (nee Elias), Iris and the two sister who accompanied her on to the “Kuala” was a boarder at the Holy Infant Jesus School in Singapore (Sleigh family correspondence)

- SLEIGH – Miss Grace ‘Gracie’ Sleigh, a fair little girl aged nine years of age at the time of the sinking (born 25 May 1933) and one of five daughters of ‘Harry’ or ‘Pop’ Henry Sleigh a well known horse trainer in Singapore both before and after the War and his second wife Hannah (nee Elias) was also a boarder at the Holy Infant Jesus School in Singapore, although the family were not Catholic (Sleigh family correspondence)

- SLOAN – Miss Sloan (sic) was on the “Kuala” (Ruperti); Miss Sloan, Penang. Escaped. (STF); Miss P. F. Sloan, P.g. (Penang?), M. C. P. (CAS)

- SMART – Leslie M. Smart, Volunteer?, General Manager FMS Railways in Pudu Gaol (MVDB); Mr. L. M. Smart, FMSR (ALFSEA); Mr. Leslie Masson Smart, born 1899, from Kincardineshire, Scotland, went to Malaya as general manager, FMS Railway HQ, Kuala Lumpur, and was a Member of the Federal Council. He was aged 53 years at the time of the fall of Singapore; it is very possible that he and his wife Annie, aged 56 years, who were both interned in the Bankinang camps were in fact on the “HMS Grasshopper “ when that ship was sunk (Moffatt, Bankinang men’s camp list and BMP)

- SMITH – Mr. D. B. Smith, PWD (PWD list at PRO); Donald Bruce Smith (his name was hyphenated in the 1950s to ‘Bruce-Smith’) was born in 1913 and educated as an engineer at Canterbury University, Christchurch, New Zealand. After graduating he worked his passage in the engine room on a ship to England and joined a firm of bridging engineers. In 1939 he joined the Public Works Department in Taiping, Malaya and also worked in Batu Gajah. He became a Lieutenant in the SSVF and was ordered with other PWD men to board the “Kuala” for Batavia and join Wavell’s forces there. He has a very good account of the bombing of the “Kuala” and the events on Pom Pong Island in his memoirs. During his time on Pom Pong Island he again met Brenda Lees (Macduff) who had nursed him when ill in Batu Gajah and he confirms in his memoirs that she was taking care of Brigadier Fawcett. He was also one of a party of four PWD men who searched for, and successfully found a “… source of water in the form of a very slight seepage from a damp rock near the water’s edge ant the bottom of a shallow water course…” He escaped to India via Padang and joined the Indian Army Engineers on railway construction on the India/ Burma border. Returning to Singapore immediately after the war he married Eleanor and worked for the BMA during 1945-1946; later becoming Executive engineer with the PWD; he was a good friend of Stanley Jewkes who was also on the “Kuala”; Donald moved his family back to New Zealand in 1950 and formed his own consulting engineering partnership which contributed to many of the major public buildings in that city. He passed away in 1987; leaving two sons and one daughter who live in New Zealand. ( son Gerald Bruce-Smith and the memoirs of Donald Bruce-Smith)

- SMITH – Mrs. and four children, Bukit Timah Road, Singapore – listed as on “TP” (JPB); children therefore listed as follows,
- SMITH – child – listed as on “TP” (JPB)
- SMITH – child – listed as on “TP” (JPB)
- SMITH – child – listed as on “TP” (JPB)
- SMITH – child – listed as on “TP” (JPB); however, following information received from Mrs.
Penelope Ferguson (a member of the wider family) in November 2012 the record is corrected so that it is now clear that this is the same family as immediately follows where the mother and two daughters lost their lives on the “TP” and the eldest daughter and nine year old son quite remarkably survived the sinking of that ship.

- SMITH – Mrs. Flossie Smith, age 36 years, wife of W. T. Smith, 13 Simon Lane, Singapore – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Mrs. ‘Flossie’ Smith was the wife of William "Thomas” Smith (in turn the son of James McArthur Smith and Emily Smith) and she had been born in 1906 . [W.T.
Smith survived the war and by 1947 was a “Contractor” living at 903-A Simon lane, off Serangoon Road in Singapore] ; at Pom Pong island Flossie boarded the “TP” with her four children and apparently on the evening the ship was sunk she suggested to her children that , since it was very hot in the ships hold with many other passengers , that they go up on deck for fresh air. Soon after they were on deck the first Japanese shell hit the ship. Flossie and her daughters died in the resulting sinking whilst Gwen and Colin ( see below ) both survived five days on one of the tiny rafts without food or water, before being picked up by a Japanese warship and subsequently interned at Palembang ( Penelope Ferguson)

- SMITH – Ms. G. Smith, left Palembang for Singapore 4.12.42 (ALFSEA and Cross list); according to information by a family researcher Gwendoline Jean Smith( b. 1923) , aged 19 years old, and her family survived the sinking of the “Kuala” at Pom Pong island and a few days later boarded the TP, on the night of the 17 February when the ship was on its way to Batavia Mrs. Smith suggested to her children that it was too hot in the hold of that little ship and that they go up on deck almost immediately the Japanese warship shelled the TP and Gwen and Colin ( it is unclear whether also the other two daughters) were thrown from the ship and were on a raft for days and then picked up by a Japanese destroyer and taken to Muntok and then interned in Palembang camp ( Penelope Ferguson); as mentioned above she was returned to Singapore in December 1942, whether she was in Changi and Sime Road camps is unclear from records of the Changi Museum ; after the War she married Neil Hentig Angus ( of the Singapore Food Control Inspectorate) at St Andrews Cathedral, Singapore ( STA 27.6.49); and after the War they moved to Western Australia; Gwen died ,aged 59 years , on 4.10.82 and her ashes are buried at Pinaroo Cemetery in Fremantle , Western Australia (Neil died on 29.11 2000 and his ashes are buried next to Gwen’s at the same cemetery).

- SMITH – Miss Maggie Smith, aged 15 years, daughter of W. T. and Flossie Smith, 13 Simon Lane , Singapore – died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC) ; and probably the same person, Miss Smith , aged 16 years, boarded the “TP” (ALFSEA); Margaret ‘Maggie’ Eileen Smith was born in 1927 and died in the sinking of the TP ( Penelope Ferguson).

- SMITH – Miss Vera Ramon Smith, aged 13 years, daughter of W. T. and Flossie Smith, 13 Simon Lane , Singapore - died around sinking of “Kuala” (CWGC); Vera Ramona Smith was born in 1928
and died in the sinking of the TP ( Penelope Ferguson)

- SMITH – Master C. Smith left Palembang for Singapore 4.12.42 (ALFSEA and Cross list); Colin Clive Smith, born 5.2.33at 18 Rose Lane , Singapore, ( source King’s College , Taunton, UK), was only a nine year old boy when he had to evacuate Singapore and according to a family researcher was with his mother and sisters on the TP after surviving the sinking of the “Kuala” at Pom Pong island, they all went up on deck from the latter little ship’s hold because it was too hot and at that moment the Japanese destroyer opened fire, Colin and his Sister Gwen were thrown from the ship and were on a raft for days before being picked up by a Japanese destroyer which left them at Muntok, after which they were interned in [Palembang camp (Penelope Ferguson); after being returned with Gwen to Singapore in 1942 Colin was interned possibly in Changi but definitely in Sime road camp, where his civilian internment number was # 3900 (Changi Museum records); after the war Colin was sent by ship to England (arriving on 3.9.47 on the “Meonlia” of East Asiatic Co) to attend King’s College, Taunton he was a pupil there from September 1947 until July 1951 and had a successful sporting career at school receiving colours in rugby, hockey and shooting, he also represented the school at swimming from 1949-51 and played for the 2nd XI cricket team.

He was made a House prefect in his last year at school and was also a member of the Cadet Force band and Bugle major. He spent his holidays with Mrs. T. Turner (his aunt, Alice Patricia, b. 1917 Singapore) of 17 Crazzock Street, Bolton, Lancashire and it appears that he remained in that specific area the rest of his life, marrying Marion Davies

-then from another family it appears there were two boys who lost their lives (with no record of their mother on board),

- SMITH – son of Mrs. Welna Smith (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO)
- SMITH – son of Mrs. Welna Smith (list of civilians on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO)
- SMITH – Sister E. M. Smith was either a Civilian or Colonial Nursing Service nurse who lost her life (QH); Miss E.? Smith, M. MEO, General Hospital Singapore – listed as on “TP” (JPB); must be the same person as “Miss Smith, Singapore fate unknown?” (STF); and probably Elsie Mary Smith, Nursing Sister, aged 41 years, daughter of Joseph and Mary Smith, Wadsley Bridge, Sheffield – died in sinking of “TP” (CWGC); and Elsie Mary Smith, Nursing Sister, b.1898 – died on “TP” (C4678)
- SMITH – Miss Smith, Nursing Sister Penang – listed as on “TP” (JPB); may be also Miss Smith, Sister MMS., sister of Mrs. A. E. Fallows (list of people on either the “Kuala” or “Tien Kwang” at PRO).
- SMITH – “…Smith HDE H Cicel Kuala bvd drowned…” (BPPL); this was in fact Mr. Horace de Herziz Smith (second son of Mr. & Mrs. R.W. Smith of Villa Aurelia, Bordighera, Italy) who was born in Croydon in 1892; he must have migrated to Malaya at an early age because by 1915 he was a Private, # 2015, in the MSVR; by 1917, when he appears to have joined the Cicely estate, he was described as “…am experienced planter at Cicely Estate... “ (SG); in 1921 he returned for home leave which he spent ‘… having adventures in Ireland ...” and on 3.4.22, in Penang, he married Miss Moira Hamilton Verschoyle of Limerick, Ireland, but she apparently returned to the UK after a few years (Moffatt); in 1928, at the Savoy Chapel in London, he married Miss Bridget Nora Downing of Durban, South Africa (SG); they were divorced (and she married Mr. R.F.C. Markham who was later killed whilst serving in the MVAF/RAF during the Malaya campaign – source Moffatt); in 1934 Horace was reported as general manager of Cicely Estate, Teluk Anson and further newspaper reports make no mention of Bridget Nora Smith; in 1935 Horace was president of the Lower Perak Club in Teluk Anson; the national Probate register in the UK records that Horace was “…lost at sea on or since 14.4.42...” , he left his estate to Nora Bennett (nee Downing) but it is not clear whether this is his ex wife or a step daughter (Moffatt). [perhaps purely coincidentally, but of note given the name of Horace’s father, there was a newspaper report on 1.9.40 of a formal court hearing to assess the military service (Malayan Volunteers) of a Mr. R. W. Smith, aged 22 years, of Cicely Estate who very strongly proclaimed that he would not shoot anyone “… even if they were machine gunning my mother …” (SG)]
- SMITH – Sister (Miss) N. Smith, Johore, seen on “Kuala” (CAS); also Miss Nota Smith (seen at wharf) J.B. sister Kedah (CAS); also “…Miss Smith, Sister, FMS – a stout fair Scots girl…” (list of people on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); it was possibly this person who Mr. D. Mackay recorded “…One girl I had met (at Senejang) had two and a half days in the water, helping a Eurasian girl without a lifebelt, clinging to the fishing stakes etc. When I saw her the day after she was rescued she had lost her voice from laryngitis but was otherwise OK and seemed to think it a normal experience…this was Miss Smith, a Sister from Ipoh Hospital…” (D. Mackay, No.2 report, Malayan Research Bureau)
- SMITH – Sister (Miss) J. Smith, B.J.B.G.H., seen on “Kuala” (CAS); also “Miss Smith, Sister, MMS, Johore Bahru – a short dark girl” (list of people on “Kuala” and “TP” at PRO); also Nursing Sister J. F. F. Smith to UK on “Antenor” (ALFSEA); a Sister Jean Smith was interned at Padang and...

Ltd.) – listed as on “TP” (JPB and Rupertii); also Sister (Miss) Somerville, G.H. seen on Pom Pong Island (CAS); from deduction she was the wife of William Somerville, Assistant, John Little & Co. Ltd., he died at Roberts Hospital, Singapore aged 41 years in August 1942 as a POW (MVDB); there is also the 1942 reference “…Somerville W. J. Little died dys as POW Sept 42 wife left with MAS…” (BPPL) – sadly there is no CWGC record of either of these deaths; however from the family of Gladys Somerville in 2012 the background story was finally revealed as “…Gladys Mary Wavish was born on 25th March 1902 in Greenwich, London and attended Tranmere High School for Girls. In 1920 she went to the Children’s Hospital at Carshalton in Surrey for training as a nurse. After passing the exam she went to St Bartholomew's Hospital in London and took the midwifery exam. After becoming a Sister she joined the Hospital’s private nursing panel and had a flat in Finsbury Square. One of her jobs was with the Raphael Tuck family (the greetings card people) and for quite a while she was nursing Christopher Stone (probably the BBC’s first disc jockey)...In 1936 she got a job as Sister Tutor in Quila Lumpur (sic), an island off the Malay mainland and it was there she met Bill Somerville who was a Departmental manager at John Little’s store... and they were married in 1938....They went home on leave when the war started, but instead of staying here as Bill wanted to, Gladys persuaded him to go back and that was unfortunate....Bill became a gunner in the coastal batteries and Gladys went back nursing in Singapore. As you know Singapore surrendered...Bill found himself in Changi jail. He didn’t live very long and died of dysentery and Beri Beri. Before the surrender, nurses and some female civilians who were still on the island were evacuated, but the ship Gladys was on didn’t get very far before it was torpedoed. The survivors were picked up by another ship [this was the ‘ss. Tandjong Pinang] which in turn was sunk in the same way. Only two people survived this one and on Victor [another of Gladys’ siblings] making enquiries from the Colonial Office he had a letter from one of them [researcher note: this would have been Margot Turner] confirming that she knew and had seen Gladys on the ship before it was sunk…” (Paul Wavish nephew 12 May 2012, New Zealand).

Stallworthy reported as leaving for England in 1934 so it may have been a different family altogether.

Three days later a ship called at night and took off a great number of women and children and wounded. I happened to be doing a nigh watch with the wounded and did not go. That ship was presumably taken prisoner and both Margaret and Daphney’s names were given over the radio among other names of women prisoners...” so she in fact escaped and reached the UK, i.e. Charnwood, Ilkley, Yorkshire by June

When the “Kuala” was bombed she recalls that the decks were slippery with blood and she slipped into the sea to escape the burning ship. She swam to a raft on which were nine non-swimmers who begged her not to leave them. Edith recalled “…The boat was in flames and the Japanese machine-gunned many of the passengers…” She tied herself to the raft and they were swept past nearby islands by the strong current. She recalls one man of 68 years of age who kept jumping into the water saying he was just a nuisance. They were rescued by a Chinese fishing boat which took them to a ‘sandbank’ and a Chinese house on stilts. She was given a ‘Tate & Lyle’ sugar sack to wear. She recalls she travelled across Sumatra and it took her a month to reach Padang [this must be an error of memory because if it took that long she would have been too late to be evacuated]. “…After a week “…she must have boarded an evacuation ship reached Bombay where she met her future husband a field ambulance officer. She settled in Dumfries and had four children (Scottish Daily Record & Sunday 2002)

- STEWART – Mr. Stewart, Hong Kong & Shanghai Bank (ALFSEA); it is not confirmed whether Mr. Stewart was on the “Kuala” (although it is most likely) or the “Tien Kwang” but he was certainly on Pom Pong island as recorded by Oswald Gilmour “…The most picturesque citizen of Pom Pong Island was, I think, Mr. R.A. TAY/TEE - were these family members of Tay Lian Teck?; “... two Chinese sisters Tay...” (ALFSEA); it appears not to be the case as per CSL and oral history records at the Singapore National Archives; rather it is very possible that they were two nurses recorded as being at Djambi Hospital Miss Lucy Tee and Miss Nancy Tee (the surnames Tee and Tay are phonetically very similar (Hoskin).

Molly had been a headstrong teenager who married Halley against her parents’ wishes. Molly’s father forbade her returning to the house and there was never reconciliation with Molly’s father. She has clarified that Mr. Halley van der Stratten later remarried in the UK in 1944. (Nina van Dort)

At Pom Pong island he was wounded in the hand during the bombing of the “Kuala” but swam to shore and his hand was dressed by Mrs. Crawford who had also swum to shore. I was however numbed from the blast for about 15 minutes and could not move…”; she then recalls boarding the “Tandjong Pinang” with about 150 women and children and on the night of the sinking of that small vessel “…as the lifeboat was being lowered I managed to scramble into it only to be thrown into the water a second later when another shell exploded near enough to shatter the lifeboat. ship), his gallant rescue efforts in rowing a lifeboat out to the ship through the bombing and rescuing many women and then vacating the lifeboat for others and swimming to shore, surviving with only a pair of shorts ion the island, finally his escape from Pom Pong island on the “Krait”. This diary account is very helpful because he mentions many people by name and gives credit where credit is due. It has been a valuable resource in compiling this memorial document.(Wear); the researcher requested a summary of the life of Algernon Wear from Peter Wear and this follows, Algernon Wear C.B.E., F.I.C.E., B.Sc. (1904-1981) qualified from Leeds University with a degree in Civil Engineering and promptly applied to the Crown Agents for service abroad. He joined the P.W.D. (Public Works Dept.) in Malaya in 1926. His wife-to-be, Marjorie, arrived in Malaya in 1936; they met a year later and they were married within 6 months. At the outbreak of war he was stationed in Kuantan on the north-east coast. At the outbreak of war, Marjorie and his first born son Guy became refugees in Perth, Western Australia. After his escape from Singapore, the family reconvened in Cape Town and he was posted to Kano in Nigeria where his son Peter was born in 1944. After a brief return to England, where Guy died, the family returned to Malaya in 1946. He continued to work all over the country and was finally posted to Singapore where, as Director of Public Works, he was responsible, amongst other things, for the building of Paya Lebar airport and the Merderka Bridge. He retired in 1956, before the independence of Malaya the following year, and was awarded the C.B.E. My father was a truly unassuming, gentle man and probably never lost his temper or even raised his voice unless in extreme circumstances. He even admitted to being physically sick when he had to fire someone. Clearly he must have been very persuasive in his own quiet way - you don't get to the top without that ability! For some reason he was perfectly equipped for working overseas, which he continued to do after 1956 till his retirement in 1973, taking in countries from Borneo and Ethiopia to Libya, Nicaragua and Ecuador. He clearly deply loved his work and seldom took a proper holiday, much to my Mum's irritation! (His son Peter Wear, email 1 June 2015).

- WEBBER – “... Mr. Webber and his wife nee Grundy were on an invasion barge which took them to Tembilihan... “(JWF); Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Webber, Eastern Smelting, listed as on “Kuala” and made it to Colombo (CAS and Inglis list at PRO); also listed as Mr. and Mrs. Webber, Eastern Smelting?, reached Colombo (list of people on either the “Kuala” or the “Tien Kwang” at PRO); also there is a record of a Miss R. M. Webber embarking on a ship in Padang on 1.3.42 – this is probably Mrs. Webber, but may have also been a daughter if such a child existed (ECEP); Arthur James Webber was from Lexden, Essex and aged 29 years at the time and worked for Eastern Smelting Co., Penang he had been in Malaya since 1937 after earlier working for Thai Industries in Bangkok. His wife was Mrs. Ruth Mary Webber (nee Grundy) and a nursing Sister in the Public from Johore Bahru and apparently very brave Matron during the bombing of that Hospital.

- WEST – “…As Mrs. West was in the Medical Auxiliary Service in Singapore, I think that it is likely she was also on the same ship, though I have not been able to get any confirmation...(letter by Mr. W. G. Taylor AP Co/Shell dated 2.4.42 whilst in Durban after escaping from Singapore, published in Shell Oil company magazine July 1942); so this is unconfirmed, but by reference to the letter to a Mr. J. H. West as being on the APC staff and being involved with the MAS at the time everyone was escaping, it appears this was the wife of Mr. Jack Victor West, Accountant, APC, Singapore, born 1901, who was interned in Changi and Sime Road Camps; if indeed she was on the ship the person is Mrs. Ailsa Dorothy West, wife of Jack Victor West, Accountant, Asiatic Petroleum Company and a volunteer driver with the MAS; it is unclear also whether this Mrs. West boarded the “TP”

In 1940 Mrs. Wildey and her husband had initiated the idea of the Royal Artillery (Changi) Married Families Club which was successfully established 9 STA 11/40), It is interesting to note that Mrs. Wildey had mixed socially and actively during the pre war years with other women such as Mrs. R. His remains appear never to have been reinterred in a CWGC cemetery. (NHN and CWGC); the facts of Frederick Wright’s death are contained firstly in an account by Mr. G. J. O’Grady of the PWD who recorded that Wright had been “…pulled onto a raft after three hours in the water. The raft supported two European nurses, both wounded, two Indian Nurses, one named Miss Fonseka, and two wounded soldiers. One of the European nurses, a small dark girl died shortly afterwards… Towards dusk the raft was near an island but appeared to be sinking, so O’Grady swam off to see if he could get help. The remaining European nurse followed him …but then could not make it back to the raft… next day O’Grady swam to another nearby island and found that the raft had drifted there…One of the wounded soldiers had died in the night. That day a native boat sighted them and took them to Pulau Temiang…and the other wounded soldier, F. W. Wright died…” (O’Grady Report No. 3, Malayan Research Bureau); this is largely corroborated in the book by Dr Chen Su Lan (CSL) where he records that he reached a raft on which was O’Grady who said it “… had capsized several times with the result that some original occupants were thrown into the sea and some of the present occupants were late comers …”.

There were six people on the raft including a young man named “Jock” described as an able seaman, who “… was very sick and weak having vomited blood. His lungs had been torn by bomb blasts … “O’Grady swam away [with an injured European nurse following him unsuccessfully] to an island some 1,000 feet away leaving Dr. Chen Su Lan on the raft with two young girls both staff nurses of the Indian Medical Service [described as ‘Hosie’ and ‘Fonceda’], an “old big tall European man [possibly Lt Hosey or Lt Hull] and “Jock”; they reached a rocky islet that night where the European died before they again pushed the raft off as the tide rose “to my horror the wind had changed direction and we were blown out ... back to the open sea. On and on we drifted helplessly …” But the raft changed direction and finally landed in front of a small mangrove island, where they spent an extremely cold night, especially for “Jock” who, with his injuries, was shivering painfully. The next morning the survivors hoisted a shirt on a long piece of timber and were seen by a Malay fisherman. Soon after O’Grady was seen in the water and he managed to reach the others and was rescued together with the remaining survivors from the raft. They were taken by Hamid, the fisherman, to his village Skapai on an island called Pulau Temiang and given their first meal in 30 hours. On Temiang Jock’s condition worsened” the next morning saw Jock sink deeper into a coma and ...at about 10.00 am expire in the presence of a physician and two nurses who were unable to render any aid. “... Thus ended the life of a young man away from his mother and sweetheart (if he had one) in a strange land, a victim of war ... at Captain’s [i.e. O’Grady’s] suggestion I wrote a short document certifying the death of F.P. Wright at Skapai on February 16th 1942, on Temiang Island. The cause of death, pulmonary haemorrhage due to bomb blast ... shortly Jock’s coffinless remains were consigned to the bosom of Mother Earth and there under the sunlit azure sky or the raindrops from the palms to await the return of peace ...” (CSL)
